

Home and Auto Bundling

Start anywhere. Build everything together.

What is Bundling?

Bundling gives you another way to build the full household by pairing Custom360[®] Home with Personal Auto Advantage.

It gives you the ability to say yes to more customers— including those with tickets or accidents, foreign licenses, or lower liability limits—by matching the auto product to the risk.

Bundling helps you deliver combined savings.

At NatGen, you have a choice in how you build the household. Bundling connects separate policies so you can tailor the right solution for each customer while maximizing flexibility and fit. Package brings Custom360 Home and Auto together into one policy with one bill and one renewal when a single-policy approach makes sense.

Start Your Quote

Start in your comparative rater or directly in NatGenAgency.com.

Start a new quote using the product that fits the conversation— Personal Auto Advantage or Custom360 Home.

Continue through the quote, entering Named Insured and risk details. The process remains familiar.

What to know

- Start with one product, either in the comp rater or NatGen system
- The second product will be added later from our new Bundle Summary screen (more to come)
- The quote continues in one workflow

Apply Bundling Discounts

To support bundling, you need to select the correct discounts.

You need to know

- In the auto quote, bundling uses the Multi-policy Discount found on the Underwriting page
In the drop-down list, make sure you select: NatGen/Allstate Ins. Policy— Homeowners
(See Figure 1)
- In the home quote, bundling uses the Package Discount found on the Home Underwriting page
This field defaults to Yes and to take advantage of bundling, you need to change it to No
We're not removing a discount, this tells the system you're bundling, not packaging
(See Figure 2)
- If either selection is missed or conflicts, the system will prompt you to return and update before continuing to the Bundle Summary
