

Youth Leadership Development for Equity

Empower the Next Generation of Changemakers!

Howard County
Office of the Local Children's Board

The Office of the Local Children's Board invites #HoCo high school students (grades 9–12) to this hands-on workshop exploring how history, institutions and bias shape today's world—and how they can champion social change and build more equitable communities.

Through interactive activities and engaging videos, participants will:

- Examine systems of inequity and learn how to challenge them
- Develop skills for inclusive leadership
- Gain confidence to drive change in their communities

Additional Perks: Daily $25 gift card plus a chance to win an additional raffle prize, lunch & refreshments provided (please note dietary restrictions upon registration).
