

FIU

Children's Creative Learning Center

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Interested in an on-campus early learning program for your child?

Discounted tuition for FIU Employees

About the Center

The Children's Creative Learning Center (CCLC) at FIU is a State Educational Research Center for Child Development and a Cognia Accredited Early Learning School. The Center is open to children of FIU students, staff, faculty, alumni, and the neighboring community.

Appy Now

By completing the Request for Admission, you are requesting that the Children's Creative Learning Center at FIU consider your child for enrollment in one of its programs.

For More Information

<https://children.fiu.edu>

305-348-2143

@FIUCCLC

FIU Employee Requirements:

- Parent/Guardian minimum halftime employment status

Child Eligibility:

- Ages 2 - 4 years old
- Achieved bathroom independence

Programs:

- Preschool (2 -3 yrs old)
- Pre-Kindergarten (4yr olds)

Program Highlights:

- Hands-on learning through PLAY
- Low adult-to-child ratios
- Classroom observation windows
- Parent Workshops
- Family Events
- Summer Camp

License# C11MD0366