

NOTRE HISTOIRE

Fireside Chat with Ghislain Gouraige Jr.
and Yanatha Desouvre
Spoken Word Performance by Mecca "Grimo" Marcellin

Join us for this engaging fireside Chat featuring the author of "Notre Histoire," Ghislain Gouraige Jr., providing a unique perspective on Haiti's first century as an independent nation. This not-often-told story sheds light on the sacrifices made for Haiti's hard-won independence, overcoming international isolation, persecution, and hostility.

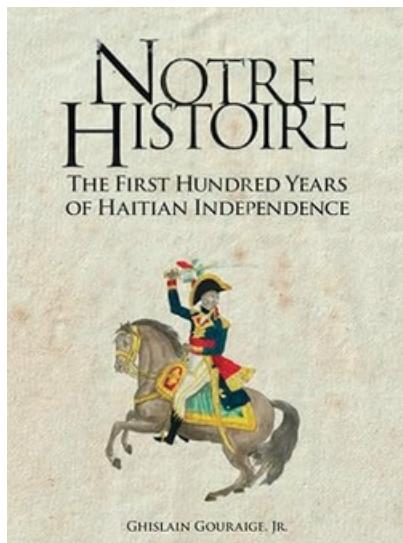

Accompanying this insightful conversation is a powerful spoken word performance by the esteemed Actor, Activist, and Educator, Mecca "Grimo" Marcellin, who will be dressed as Toussaint L'Ouverture, famously known as the "Black Spartacus."

Thursday
FEB. 15

7 pm

BBC Campus
Hubert Library 175

FOOD WILL BE SERVED!

About Notre Histoire

"Notre Histoire" is a narrative told from the Haitian point of view, specifically in English for members of the Haitian diaspora. It serves as an essential educational piece, emphasizing the resilience and sacrifices made to achieve independence. The narrative transcends historical challenges, offering a hopeful perspective on the strength of a resilient people.

FIU

Libraries

FIU

Campus Life

dLOC

DIGITAL LIBRARY OF THE CARIBBEAN