

Texas Woman's University – Denton Campus
Department: Kinesiology
Title: Assistant Professor, Sport Management
Job Code: 16HS-KIN02

DESCRIPTION: The Department of Kinesiology (<http://www.twu.edu/kinesiology/>) seeks to fill a full-time tenure track position at the assistant professor rank for an academic appointment that begins August, 2017. We are seeking a highly qualified individual with a specialization in Sport Management or a closely related field. The Sport Management program is geographically positioned for strategic enrollment growth and to provide a wide variety of collegiate, professional, community, and amateur sport-related opportunities for partnerships, internships, and scholarly endeavors.

QUALIFICATIONS: An earned doctorate in Kinesiology with a focus in the area of Sport Management or a related field. Commitment to excellence in teaching. Preference will be given to a candidate with a strong practical experience background in marketing and management.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses within the area of Sport Management. Seek external funding to support a research program. Mentor undergraduate and graduate students and direct student research. Serve on department, college, and university committees.

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience. TWU provides travel funds for professional conferences/meetings. In addition, startup funds are negotiable.

ENVIRONMENT: Texas Woman's University occupies a notable position in higher education as the nation's largest university primarily for women. Established in 1901, TWU is a doctoral/research-intensive public university which emphasizes the liberal arts and sciences as well as specialized and professional studies in business, nursing, health sciences, and education. The Department of Kinesiology has over 700 students pursuing undergraduate, masters, and doctoral studies on the Denton campus. TWU operates three campuses: Houston, Dallas, and the main campus in Denton (population 115,000), located 40 miles north of the Dallas/Fort Worth area. This metroplex, the nation's fourth largest urban center, has world-class museums, orchestras, opera, ballet, theatre companies, as well as an array of professional and collegiate sports venues. Additional information about the University is available at <http://www.twu.edu>.

APPLICATION: Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vita, copy of graduate transcripts, and names and contact information for three references to facultyjobs@twu.edu (email Header or Subject line must include the job title and job code). Questions should be emailed to: Gwendolyn Weatherford, PhD (gweatherford@twu.edu).

DEADLINE: Application review will begin November 15, 2016 and will continue until the position is filled.

Texas Woman's University, an AA/EEO employer, supports diversity. Men and women, and members of all racial and ethnic groups, are encouraged to apply. All positions at Texas Woman's University are deemed security sensitive requiring background checks.

Texas Woman's University strives to provide an educational environment that affirms the rights and dignity of each individual, fosters diversity, and encourages a respect for the differences among persons. Discrimination or harassment of any kind is considered inappropriate.

Texas Woman's University is committed to equal opportunity in employment and education and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, age, veteran's status, or against qualified disabled persons.