

“A community of women who share a passion for golf and all it brings to their lives.”

LPGA Amateur Golf Association is an initiative born through an alliance between the LPGA Foundation and the Executive Women’s Golf Association (EWGA). For almost 30 years, the EWGA connected thousands of women across the U.S. and beyond to learn, play, and enjoy golf for business and fun. By joining forces, the LPGA and EWGA are able to broaden the reach of the LPGA’s renowned resources to the EWGA’s amateur women golfers and grow the audience for a combined mission.

Why should your company partner with the LPGA Amateur Golf Association Fort Lauderdale?

We are the longest running national association that supports amateur women golfers. Members enjoy access to local and national networking, playing opportunities, and leadership development activities.

- Access to over 200 highly engaged women.
- Brand awareness through electronic, in-person, and print opportunities.
- A customized partnership package that fits your financial, brand, and employee needs.
- Speaking opportunity to introduce your company or services at a chapter event
- The opportunity to support women’s networking initiatives within your company through supporting employee participation in the LPGA Amateur Golf Association clinics, leadership opportunities, and memberships.
