

"Weaving Hope With A Faith That Does Justice"

An Interfaith Social Justice Convening Day

Saturday, April 14th, 2018

Holy Spirit Retreat Center

4316 Lanai Rd, Encino, CA

9:00- 4:30pm

The Anima International Foundation of the Sisters of Social Service Community, in partnership with our lead sponsor NETWORK, invite you to our Interfaith Social Justice Convening Day. This event is for all those who care deeply about social justice and who are passionate about challenging the great inequalities being created by our current political realities.

Hospitality & Registration 8:30 am to 9 am
Lunch included Free with registration (donations accepted)

Morning: "Roots of Violence and the Call to Compassion"

- Keynote-- Simone Campbell, SSS
Executive Director of NETWORK Lobby for Catholic Social Justice
- Jeremy Richman, Ph.D., Executive Director of the Avielle Foundation

Afternoon: "Migration and the Challenges to the Web of Life"

- Eva Marie Lumas, SSS, D.Min., Interim Co-Director of the Institute for Black Catholic Studies, Xavier University, New Orleans

Panel Presentation:

- Rev. Deborah Lee, Executive Director of the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity
- Jose Artiga, Executive Director of the SHARE Foundation
- Irma Murrieta, SSS, International Workers' Rights Educator and Advocate

Strategies for Active Hope:

- Simone Campbell, SSS and Maribeth Larkin, SSS, Lead Community Organizer for the Industrial Areas Foundation (IAF)

Limited space and parking, RSVP to reserve your spot.

Send registration form to: Interfaith Social Justice Day, 4316 Lanai Rd, Encino, CA 91436
or click here to RSVP on-line Eventbrite

NAME(s) _____ Phone _____

Affiliated Organization _____ # attending _____

ADDRESS _____ e-mail _____

CITY _____ State _____ ZIP _____