

Join the WRSSAR for our Annual George Washington's Birthday Luncheon Celebration

Saturday,
February 22nd, 2020

The Shaker Heights Country Club Main Dining Room

Free valet parking and coat check

Cash Bar opens at 11:30am; Program begins at 12 Noon

Luncheon: Salad w/mixed greens, Petit beef Filet, potatoes, vegetable, rolls, & cherry pie

Vegetarian meal available with advanced notice

Program: Lt. Col Sherman Fleek, West Point Military Academy's Command Historian, will travel to Cleveland to speak to our members and guests about George Washington's role and participation at West Point during the Revolutionary War and his desire to establish a military academy during his presidency. Q & A to follow his remarks.

In 2005, the U.S. Army appointed Mr. Fleek as historian to record the Army's official history of the reconstruction efforts in Iraq. In May, 2007, he became the first ever historian for Walter Reed Army Medical Center. In 2009, he was appointed the command historian for the United States Military Academy, West Point, NY.

RSVPs required by February 15th, 2020 (No refunds after 2/17/20)

Open Seating but we will reserve tables for any group requesting a table.

	Ticket Prices
Regular Ticket	$38 per person
Patron Ticket	$50 per person	$12 deduction
Sponsor Ticket	$100 per person	$62 deduction
Benefactor ticket	$250 per person	$212 deduction

Payments may be made at the door via cash, check or credit card or pre-pay online at www.wrssar.org. All non-SAR members MUST provide their phone or email address.

RSVP & questions to:

WRSSAR, 17511 Daleview Drive, Lakewood, Ohio 44107

Call: 216-357-1646, leave a message

Email: wrssar.communications@gmail.com

Website: You can RSVP online at: <http://www.wrssar.org/events-rsvps/>