

January
Vision
Loss

*I told my husband, "Lou! It's red!" He says to me, "Move your head?"
So I said, "Did you not see the red light?" He said, "What red light?"
I've got cataracts. It looked like an orange blur."
So, Officer, if you want to arrest him now, be my guest!*

Which lines are clear?

February
Heart
Disease

"Doesn't surprise me that I have a bad 'ticker'. I haven't been able to hear anything that 'ticks' in years."

"The Doc says my ears can be a window to my heart."

March
Kidney
Disease

Why does the Silent Enemy have to go with the flow?

"Today, we learn about filtration."

April Ototoxicity

"What does the fine print say?"

"You're saying we may harm hearing?"

May Hearing & Speech

"My smart wife says to stop waiting and take care of my hearing."

"I think I see your problem."

June Dementia

"Yeah, but, what if I can't remember if I have a hearing loss?"

"New technology helps our brains work smarter, not harder."

July NIHL

SOUNDS RISKY!

August Cognitive Decline

Mild Cognitive Decline?

September Risk of Falls

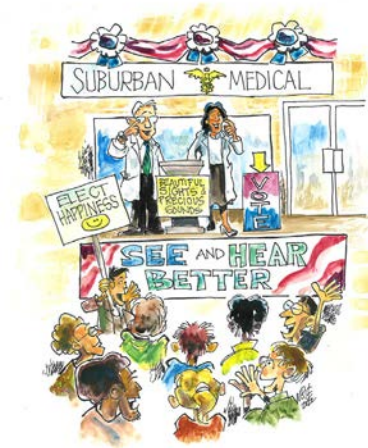

To play it safe, get life back in balance.

October Depression

1 is the loneliest number.

November Diabetes

"When it comes to Diabetes and hearing loss, think twice!"

"These Foods Get on My Nerves"

December Tinnitus

"I wonder if using the DO NOT CALL list to stop the ringing in my ears would work."

"Suddenly, these candles don't seem so bright."