

Hearing loss, a silent thief,
is a harmful malady from which to get relief.

For many reasons, better hearing is smart, including how our ears can be a window to our heart.

When our ear's blood vessels suggest hearing loss is shown,
expert cardiovascular testing results should be known.

Instead of loneliness and despair,
it is always wise to take care.

While life gets busy and schedules are tight,
necessary testing helps ensure futures are bright.
