

WEOP Event Registration Privacy Policy

Women's Entrepreneurial Opportunity Project (WEOP) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the information you provide when registering for our events.

Information We Collect

When you register, WEOP may collect information such as your name, email address, phone number, company or organization, professional role, business interests, and responses to event-related questions.

How We Use Your Information

- Information collected through event registration may be used to:
- Process and confirm your registration.
- Send event updates, reminders, agendas, and follow-up information.
- Better understand who attends WEOP programs and the interests and needs of our audience.
- Evaluate event participation and impact.
- Develop aggregated statistics, reports, and event recaps.
- Inform future WEOP programs, resources, and activities.

When WEOP shares event findings publicly, survey and registration information will be reported in aggregate form whenever possible and will not identify individual participants without permission.

Sharing Your Information

WEOP does not sell or rent your personal information. Information may be shared with trusted service providers or event partners only when necessary to support event administration, communications, technology, or related program activities.

Communications

By registering, you agree to receive communications related to the event. You may also receive information about relevant WEOP programs, resources, and upcoming opportunities. You may unsubscribe from general marketing communications at any time.

Data Protection

WEOP takes reasonable steps to safeguard personal information collected through its event registration systems. Registration information may also be processed through third-party platforms used to manage events and communications.

Your Choices

You may contact WEOP if you would like to request that your personal information be corrected, updated, or removed from WEOP's records, subject to applicable recordkeeping requirements.

Consent

By submitting an event registration form, you acknowledge that you have reviewed this Privacy Policy and consent to the collection and use of your information as described above.
