

Must-Attend Events This Spring for Chamber Leaders and Your Members

The PA Chamber invites you and your members to take advantage of two important upcoming events designed for you and your members to learn, engage, and connect with the peers, experts, and leaders who shape Pennsylvania.

Whether you're strengthening your own expertise or identifying high-impact opportunities to improve your organization or boost your members' bottom lines, the PA Chambers' 2026 HR Conference and 2026 Women in Business Conference will both deliver timely and highly engaging content, statewide connections, and influential voices worth rallying around.

Thursday, March 5, 2026 | 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Sheraton Harrisburg-Hershey

Harrisburg, PA

For chambers supporting employers through workforce changes, HR law updates, and efforts to recruit new talent, the PA Chamber's HR Conference is an essential resource.

This conference brings together HR professionals, business leaders, policy experts, and workforce innovators from across the Commonwealth, making it an ideal event for:

- Chamber executives and staff involved in workforce, talent, or policy programming
- Local HR councils or employer roundtables
- Member businesses seeking practical, compliance-focused guidance

A featured agenda highlight is an exclusive, workforce-focused fireside chat with Pennsylvania Department of Labor & Industry Secretary Nancy Walker, offering insight into:

- Statewide workforce priorities
- Regulatory updates affecting employers
- Opportunities for collaboration between business, chambers, and government

Participants will also benefit from:

- The latest policy and legislative updates impacting the workplace

- Engaging sessions on today’s most pressing HR topics
- The always-popular mock debate, where experts share candid perspectives on real-world workplace challenges

Thursday, April 2, 2026

Lancaster Marriott

Lancaster, PA

Our quickest growing signature event, the annual PA Chamber Women in Business Conference, offers chamber professionals an exceptional opportunity to engage around leadership, talent development, and connection – and this year, the event will be anchored by a keynote conversation you won’t want to miss.

We’re thrilled to welcome Meta President and Vice Chairman Dina Powell McCormick for an exclusive morning fireside chat. A nationally recognized business leader, national security advisor, and economic development strategist, Dina Powell McCormick will share her personal career-based insights on mentorship and discuss other key leadership insights with Arnold Ventures’ CEO Kelli Rhee.

Returning to Lancaster, this signature annual PA Chamber event will also welcome exhibitors, C-suite executives, chamber leaders, and rising professionals at all stages of their careers for a day focused on:

- Connection and peer learning
- Practical skill-building
- Exposure to statewide brands and business leaders

Full agenda details and sponsorship opportunity information is available here.

Join Us—and Bring Your Members Along!

Local chambers are critical in helping employers navigate change while building strong, connected communities. These spring events are more than just opportunities to learn and engage, they’re tools you can use to:

- Strengthen your own leadership and network
- Deliver value and insight to your members
- Connect local businesses to statewide priorities and decision-makers

We hope you'll join us in person this spring—and encourage your members to do the same! We look forward to continuing our work together to strengthen Pennsylvania's employer community.
