

Tips for Energy Efficient Heating this Fall

Find and prevent drafts throughout your home

Lower your home's thermostat to save energy

Open and close curtains for better energy efficiency

Inspect your furnace before winter arrives

Check your fireplace for drafts

Don't block your vents

Use less energy for water heating during the fall

Check your home's insulation

Reverse the direction of your ceiling fans for fall