Join Forces with AIHA on #GIVINGTUESDAY™

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL HEALTH ALLIANCE

We do development differently.

Thanksgiving Day in the United States is fast approaching, marking the start of the holiday season. Thanksgiving brings with it another tradition - Black Friday and Cyber Monday - two days for getting great deals! On Nov. 27, the day after Cyber Monday, people are creating a new ritual for our annual calendar: #GivingTuesday.

#GivingTuesday is a day for giving back. It's a reminder of the "reason for the season." It's become a global movement to make the world a better place, with millions of people of all ethnicities, religions, and backgrounds demonstrating our common capacity to give.

At AIHA, we're proud of what we do to achieve our vision of a world with access to quality healthcare for everyone, everywhere. Our work to strengthen health systems and train health and social service workers in low-income countries brings us closer to that vision. Your support on #GivingTuesday will bring us closer still. Every act of generosity counts, and each means even more when we give together.

Since 1992, AIHA has been working in more than 34 countries around the globe to make positive and lasting changes in their health service delivery systems. Become part of the change by donating today!
