

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

SCOUTS READ SACRED TEXTS

A SCOUT IS REVERENT...

AT 5:30 local time, on Thursday, May 1st, Scouts all around the world will be reading the sacred texts of world religions including: Protestant, Catholic, Jewish, and Muslim faiths. In addition, Scouts in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Christian, Eastern Orthodox, Hindu, Sikh, and other Faiths will also be reading their Sacred Texts.

Scouts can participate in one of three ways:

1. First, read Sacred Texts at home with their family.
2. Second, read Sacred Texts at their faith location.
3. Finally, ask a Scout friend to join them.

Participating in this event could help satisfy the Duty to God requirement necessary for advancement.

Below are the Churches and Facilities that will be participating. If you are going to participate at one of the following locations, please be there no later than 5:15pm so not to interrupt the readings.
