

Join the Refugee Educator Foundations of Practice Learning Community

You are invited to register now to be part of Cohort 3 and receive free access ($500 value) to all of this and more:

- Access to a 12-week facilitated online course followed by 6 months of coaching.
- Carefully curated content focused on improving experiences and outcomes for students of refugee backgrounds
- A diverse community of practice within which to dialog, share resources, and problem-solve together with educators from across the preK-12 grade span, and from different schools, districts, and states.
- 30 PESB-approved PD hours (check with your school/district for specific PD requirements).
- A supportive space to develop and demonstrate your abilities to build safe, inclusive, productive learning environments to support refugee student academic achievement and well-being

The course will start on June 20, 2020.
Space is limited. Sign up now!

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Logistics & details:

Course runs from June 20 - September 30 and coaching continues through March, 2021. Expect to spend 2-4 hours online per week. There will be job-embedded assignments to complete with immediate, practical application. There will also be discussions to join, formative assessments, and opportunities to earn micro-credentials through competency-based assessments. Questions? Email Julie Kasper, Program Manager, at jkasper@careyinstitute.org.

Topics for exploration, application, & reflection include:

- Building community
- Getting to know students & families
- Culturally relevant, responsive, and sustaining pedagogies
- Social and emotional learning
- Trauma-informed practice
- Curriculum and assessment
- Learning and instructional design
- Advocacy and teacher leadership

Learn more about our work on our website and at our engagement portal.