

Join Us as a University Mentor in Art Education at CSULB!

California State University, Long Beach (CSULB) is seeking enthusiastic and dedicated University Mentors to support and guide our student teachers in Art Education.

As a University Mentor, you'll play a vital role in shaping the next generation of art educators—offering guidance, feedback, and encouragement as student teachers gain hands-on classroom experience.

Required Qualifications:

- ☐ A valid California Single Subject Teaching Credential in Art
- ☐ At least 5 years of K–12 art teaching experience
- ☐ A demonstrated commitment to working successfully with a diverse student population

Preferred Qualification:

- ☐ A master's degree in Art Education/Education or a related field

Responsibilities:

- ☐ Serve as a University Mentor for art student teachers
- ☐ Observe, mentor, and provide constructive feedback throughout the student teaching semester

If you're passionate about art education and enjoy supporting emerging teachers, we'd love to hear from you!
