

About

About Art Sherwyn

For over 40 years, Art Sherwyn has been devoted to unlocking creative potential through the appreciation and practice of visual art. A highly celebrated high school art teacher, Art has received some of the highest honors in art education, including the prestigious Disney American Teacher Award, California Art Educator of the Year, and National Secondary Art Educator of the Year. His expertise has led to invitations to speak at local, state, and national conferences on arts, education, and leadership.

Through his dynamic workshops, retreats, and public lectures, Art inspires participants to break free from convention, embrace failure as a pathway to success, and enrich their lives through the emotional freedom cultivated in the artistic process.

Author & Educator

As an author, Art Sherwyn's methods have become indispensable for artists and educators alike. His innovative techniques deepen the understanding of composition and color, guiding individuals from all backgrounds to embark on their own artistic journey—challenging perception and inspiring a renewed passion for the world around them.

Currently, Art is developing a comprehensive textbook based on his most effective lesson plans, ensuring his wisdom and approach continue to inspire future generations.

Artist & Creator

Art Sherwyn is an artist in constant exploration. Whether painting outdoors in the heart of American landscapes or working in his studio, he pushes the boundaries of playful form and expression. His workspace is a world of creative energy—where 1930s blues guitars hum from a weathered radio, tennis balls sit in trays of wet paint, and works created from smoke and fire hang beside his traditional landscapes.

His vibrant interpretations of life and nature can be found in public and private collections across the globe.

Continuing the Journey

Art Sherwyn continues to teach in Bakersfield, CA, while traveling the country to offer lectures and workshops to artists, educators, and lifelong learners. His passion for truth, beauty, and creative expression fuels his ongoing exploration of new ways to inspire and connect with others.

About Art Sherwyn

Unlocking Creativity Through Art

For over 40 years, Art Sherwyn has been devoted to unlocking creative potential through the appreciation and practice of visual art. A highly celebrated high school art teacher, Art has received some of the highest honors in art education, including:

- ☐ Disney American Teacher Award
- ☐ California Art Educator of the Year
- ☐ National Secondary Art Educator of the Year

His expertise has led to invitations to speak at local, state, and national conferences on arts, education, and leadership.

Through dynamic workshops, retreats, and public lectures, Art inspires participants to break free from convention, embrace failure as a pathway to success, and enrich their lives through the emotional freedom of the artistic process.

Author & Educator

As an author, Art Sherwyn's methods have become indispensable for artists and educators alike. His innovative techniques deepen the understanding of composition and color, guiding individuals from all backgrounds to embark on their own artistic journey—challenging perception and inspiring a renewed passion for the world around them.

☐ Currently, Art is developing a comprehensive textbook based on his most effective lesson plans, ensuring his wisdom continues to inspire future generations.