

Chief of Pediatric Dermatology | University of Iowa

Merritt Hawkins, the nation's premier academic physician search firm, is assisting the established and reputable Department of Dermatology at the University of Iowa.

Also ranked last year by Forbes Magazine as America's #1 Health Care Employer, this opportunity offers a rewarding work-environment and great work-life balance as well as the following:

- Work amongst a collegial team of dermatologists at Iowa's only comprehensive academic medical center
- Enjoy protected time for administrative duties and scholarly activities including research
- Practice alongside dedicated support staff including a PA and a RN in pediatric dermatology
- Opportunity to teach medical students and residents and establish a pediatric dermatology fellowship
- Immediate leadership opportunity as Director of Pediatric Dermatology for qualified candidates
- Work environment includes the brand new, 14-story, $360-million UI Stead Family Children's hospital
- Very manageable, shared call coverage with residents taking primary call
- Excellent salary commensurate with experience including an incentive program.
- Comprehensive benefits package including excellent retirement contribution and relocation assistance.

2018 U.S. News and World Report has Ranked Iowa as the Best State to Live in America

In addition to practicing at a highly ranked medical center, you will live in one of the best-educated and safest communities in the country. Iowa City offers a cosmopolitan flavor without the traffic, crime, or high cost of living associated with a metropolitan area. The area also features the following attributes:

- Outstanding public schools, typically ranked in the top 1% nationally
- World-class entertainment, eclectic culinary experiences, as well as an abundance of literary, musical, and cultural opportunities
- Gorgeous custom homes built on large lots with prices under $150/sq. ft.
- Immediate airport access and convenient proximity to multiple major metropolitan areas
