

Chief Executive Officer

Denver Health

Denver, CO – Witt/Kieffer has been retained to conduct a search for the next Chief Executive Officer for Denver Health, a healthcare system nationally recognized for its passion and commitment to the communities it serves. As an integrated healthcare system Denver Health includes an academic research center, managed care plans, paramedic services and a public health department. The Denver Health Rocky Mountain Regional Trauma Center has been recognized as one of the preeminent Level I Trauma Centers in the country, with the best trauma survival rate in the United States. Denver Health is also considered a national model of an integrated urban safety net health care system that includes a 525 bed acute care hospital. Denver Health is formally affiliated with the University of Colorado School of Medicine where all faculty have full-time academic appointments.

The CEO will establish a vision for Denver Health and will lead and navigate the complexities of Colorado's primary safety net institution to achieve their vision to be the healthiest community in the United States. The CEO will build a strong internal leadership team that continues to be focused on performance excellence in quality, finance, physician alignment and satisfaction.

This is an outstanding opportunity for a dynamic and progressive leader to live and work in a very desirable, highly advanced healthcare market. Qualified candidates will bring broad executive leadership experience within an academic health system, academic medical center or major teaching hospital and are comfortable and bring experience working within an urban safety net health care system. S/he will have well-established strategic, fiscal, management, communication and interpersonal skills along with a genuine passion for patient care, education, research and public health.

All discussions about this search will be handled in strict confidence. Please direct all inquiries, nominations, CVs or résumés to DenverHealthCEO@wittkieffer.com.

Denver Health values diversity and is committed to equal opportunity for all persons regardless of age, color, disability, ethnicity, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status or any other status protected by law.
