

Designated Institutional Official

University of Cincinnati

The University of Cincinnati seeks a visionary and collaborative leader to serve as the Designated Institutional Official. The new DIO will have the opportunity to take the current Graduate Medical Education (GME) programs to the next level and foster more closely aligned, productive working relationships with partner hospitals.

The University of Cincinnati Medical Center, in affiliation with the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine is the Sponsoring Institution for more than 65 ACGME accredited residency and fellowship programs along with more than 30 other medical specialty programs and programs in dentistry and podiatry. There is an opportunity to expand the programs to West Chester Hospital, a community-based hospital within their academic health system.

The preferred candidate will have the ability to define, articulate and realize a vision for Graduate Medical Education development and integration within the context of the strategic plan of the University of Cincinnati Medical Center and the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine.

The University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, located in the heart of the city just east of the university's uptown campus, has a distinguished reputation for training prominent health care professionals and providing leading-edge research. This tradition of excellence consistently places it among the nation's best in the prestigious U.S. News & World Report annual guide to "America's Best Hospitals." Substantial collaborations also exist with the Cincinnati VA and Cincinnati Children's Hospital, ranked #2 amongst the top children's hospitals in the country.

Position Requirements: MD/DO, Ph.D. or Ed.D with a proven record of educational scholarship at an accredited medical school as well as significant experience in GME either as a residency/fellowship program director or DIO.

The University of Cincinnati, as a multi-national and culturally diverse university, is committed to providing an inclusive, equitable and diverse place of learning and employment. As part of a complete job application, you will be asked to include a Contribution to Diversity and Inclusion statement.

Interested applicants should send their curriculum vita to alyssa.barraza@merrithawkins.com. Questions and inquiries can be directed to Alyssa Barraza, Senior Search Consultant of Academic Recruiting at Merritt Hawkins at 469.524.1527. All applications will be handled in a security sensitive and confidential manner.