

Director of the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Residency Program Department of Dentistry at the University of Toledo

The Department of Dentistry at the University of Toledo (UToledo) College of Medicine & Life Sciences is seeking an experienced clinician and committed leader to develop and lead a new CODA Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (OMS) Residency Program as the Founding Program Director. This is a full-time, salaried, teacher-scholar track; tenure eligible position. The Program Director will have the opportunity to be at the Professor level. The department is undergoing significant investment in facilities and advanced, state-of-the-art technology to continue educating the next generation of dental healthcare professionals in a patient-centered environment. UToledo has been recognized for its innovative work-life programs.

Opportunity Highlights:

- Join one of the Best Medical Schools in the Nation and second-largest employer in northwest Ohio where you'll have opportunities for professional growth and personal career satisfaction.
- Successful candidate will be an oral surgeon with the clinical and academic background necessary to create a new OMS Residency program with experienced, highly respected leadership of a large dental residency at UToledo.
- The new Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Residency Program will enroll two (2) residents per year. Currently, there are six (6) local private practice oral surgeons on the teaching staff and 20 treatment rooms.
- Work on one of the most technologically advanced campuses in the U.S.—the renowned Lloyd A. Jacobs Interprofessional Immersive Simulation Center—“a game changer” in medical education.
- Training: Two (2) well-established, ADA-accredited training programs: General Practice Residency and Pediatric Dentistry Residency Programs.
- Subspecialty training in oral surgery, endodontics, periodontics, prosthodontics, and pediatric dentistry provide unique perspectives that enhance the educational and collaboration opportunities.
- Strong commitment from local Oral & Maxillofacial surgeons who support the teaching program.
- Quality Work/Life Balance: Experience a large network of richly diverse people and services, generous benefits, flexible work schedules, and a healthy work-life balance, all on vibrant campuses surrounded by green space.
- Living in Toledo offers a low-cost of living and a metropolitan lifestyle that is second to none. Situated on the banks of the Maumee River and on the shores of Lake Erie, Toledo is a friendly and enterprising community, offering outstanding Metroparks, a world-class zoo, professional sports teams, and endless recreational activities year-round. In fact, Toledo ranks No. 2 Best Place for Outdoor Lovers by U.S. News & World Report.
- A short drive to beaches, lake-side parks, and ferry access to popular island destinations, Toledo offers both the cultural amenities of a big city and close-knit feel of a small town. Plus, appreciate easy access to Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, and Columbus!
