

Vice Chair of Research | Marshall University

Huntington, West Virginia

Merritt Hawkins is excited to represent this dynamic Vice Chair of Research position. This Division recently received a $3 Million Endowment dedicated to for Geriatric Research and is seeking a research focused Geriatrician to help develop the Division's research platform. This is an amazing opportunity for any researcher looking to build their dream position with the full support and backing of the University and School of Medicine.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Spend 50 percent of your time on research
- Extremely supportive Administration and Dean
- Ample research space – just tell us what you need
- Provide guidance to Residents who are interested in research
- Funds available to bring your research team or build one once you arrive
- Help with the building of a Geriatrics Fellowship
- No patient call required

Join an established Division's with 2 faculty members looking for the right person to expand their research base. This is your opportunity to build the lab you always wanted and be on the ground floor of an institutions that is dedicated to becoming a more research focused and has the funds to make it happen.

BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN UNIVERSITY TOWN:

- 4-season climate
- Great public and private schools
- Low cost of living
- Beautiful downtown on the water
- Division I college sports

Please Contact Scott Mevers, Senior Director of Academic Recruiting

Scott.Mevers@merritthawkins.com 770.481.1164