

Inpatient Psychiatry Medical Director - Residency Coordinator

Oregon Health & Science University – Portland, Oregon

Merritt Hawkins, the nation's leading academic search firm, invites you to consider an opportunity with a prestigious academic institution in Portland, Oregon for the Inpatient Medical Director and Training Coordinator for their Residency Program.

We are seeking board certified psychiatrists, with a minimum of 5 years practicing experience and a minimum of 5 years of successful leadership and people management experience. The ideal candidate must have significant experience in managing medical and clinical practice of physicians and multi-disciplinary staff in mental health settings.

- New state-of-the-art facility like no other in Oregon with 24/7 support
- Extremely competitive salary and benefits package with sign-on bonus and relocation assistance
- Opportunity to train the next generation
- Leadership opportunity to build a program
- 60% clinical / 40% administrative
- Opportunity to teach residents and medical students

Work and live in downtown Portland - Benefits include:

- Centralized clinic locations to all of Portland
- Experience city living in the great Pacific Northwest
- Access to tremendous restaurants and activities
- Trail Blazers, Timbers and multiple college teams
- Three hours away from Seattle
- Access to the beach and skiing
- International airport with access to the entire U.S.

This region of the Pacific Northwest is well-known for its pristine weather, historic culture and famous arts all within one of the biggest cities in the Northwest. This region has easy access to the beach, mountain, resort communities, golf courses and access to major universities.

Interested applicants should send their curriculum vitae to Kim.Zeigler@MerrittHawkins.com. Questions and inquiries can be directed to Kim Zeigler, Senior Director of Academic Recruiting at Merritt Hawkins at (800) 876-0500. All applications will be handled in a security sensitive and confidential manner.