

Head, Department of Urology

The University of Minnesota Medical School invites applications and nominations for Head, Department of Urology.

The University of Minnesota Medical School is one of the premier research-intensive schools in the nation, ranked No. 30 in NIH funding in 2018, and currently in an era of major investment and growth. UMN leadership is demonstrating collaboration, innovation, and singular ambition in their approach to each of School's missions. The recent expanded partnership between the UMN, University of Minnesota Physicians and Fairview Health System brings together the University of Minnesota Medical Center and Fairview's other 11 hospitals, 56 primary care clinics and other services into a shared care delivery system united under a single brand, M Health Fairview.

The next Department Head must be a compelling leader with clinical, surgical, and research expertise whose passion for the educational, clinical, and research missions energize the faculty, staff, and learners, focusing their efforts on a strategic vision of excellence in all missions. The UMN Medical School is deeply committed to ensuring that the Urology Department is recognized among the best in the nation and has set the table for its next Head to successfully lead the Department.

Applicants must have an MD, MD/PhD, or equivalent, board certification in urology, academic accomplishments that merit an appointment at the rank of associate or full professor, and eligibility for a Minnesota medical license.

The University of Minnesota is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, protected veteran or disabled status, or genetic information.

Please forward, as soon as possible, candidate nominations. Applicants should email a letter of interest and C.V. to:
