

University of Nevada, Reno

Dean, Orvis School of Nursing
University of Nevada, Reno
Reno, Nevada

The Orvis School of Nursing (OSN) at the University of Nevada, Reno (UNR) invites applications and nominations for Dean. The School seeks a collaborative, dynamic, and innovative leader who will play an integral role in representing OSN and harnessing opportunities to further elevate the School as a leader in nursing education, clinical practice, and research, and meeting the immense need for well-trained nurses in the state.

The University of Nevada, Reno, founded in 1874, is the state of Nevada's first university and the state's land-grant university. UNR is classified by the Carnegie Foundation as a Research 1 university and has attained the prestigious "Carnegie Engaged" classification, reflecting its students and institutional impact on civic engagement and service, fostered by extensive community and statewide collaborations. UNR serves 21,000 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and 75 countries.

The Dean of OSN reports to the Executive Vice President (EVP) and Provost and serves on the Senior Leadership Team for the University. The Dean will be an academically distinguished leader and a key player in the School's work to energize partnership and action in shaping the future of OSN and the healthcare environment. The Dean must hold a master's degree with a major in nursing and a doctorate degree in nursing or related field from an accredited school. Additionally, the Dean will have a record commensurate with appointment of tenure within the OSN, and current or eligible RN licensure to practice nursing in the state of Nevada.

UNR has engaged the executive search firm, Isaacson, Miller to assist in the search. All applications and inquiries will be confidential.
