

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY MEDICINE

The Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) College of Medicine in Charleston, South Carolina, invites applications and nominations for the position of Chair of the Department of Family Medicine in a city and community known for its enviable quality of life. MUSC and MUSC Health are in the midst of an exciting period of growth with increases in extramural research funding, support for expanding telehealth activities, several new clinical outreach facilities, and a new Children's and Women's Hospital.

MUSC, the state's only academic health science center, consists of six colleges and educates and trains more than 3,200 students and approximately 900 residents annually. The University and its health system have collective annual budgets of approximately $7 billion and annual research funding over $350 million. In the Charleston area, MUSC operates a 700-bed medical center, a nationally recognized children's hospital, the NCI-designated Hollings Cancer Center, a Level I trauma center, along with a number of outreach locations. Through its regional health network, MUSC Health serves patients throughout the state.

Reporting directly to the Dean of the MUSC College of Medicine, the Chair is charged with advancing the academic, clinical, and research missions of the Department of Family Medicine, serving as a vital partner in framing the strategic direction for MUSC and MUSC Health. The Department of Family Medicine consists of 33 faculty members and 4 mid-level practitioners. Established in 1970 as one of the first university-affiliated family medicine departments in the country, the department's residency program has graduated over 500 family medicine physicians and currently has 30 family medicine residents. The department also has 6 transitional year residents and 2 primary care sports medicine fellows.

MUSC seeks a dynamic, accomplished physician to continue the department's growth and development. Applicants must possess an M.D. or equivalent medical degree, be board certified in Family Medicine, possess outstanding leadership skills and administrative experience garnered in an academic medical center setting, and possess a solid track record of commitment to clinical care, education, service, health equity, and research.

Applications (including letter of interest and CV) may be submitted via the MUSC employment website at https://musc.wd1.myworkdayjobs.com/MUSC/job/Charleston/UNIV---Chair-Professor--Department-of-Family-Medicine\_R-0000036979; expressions of interest may also be sent by email to Jennifer Nall, Associate Dean and Chief of Staff, MUSC College of Medicine, at nallj@musc.edu.
