EXECUTIVE VICE CHAIR
DEPARTMENT OF NEUROLOGY
BRIGHAM HEALTH
BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL

The Department of Neurology at Brigham and Women's Hospital (BWH) is seeking a physician or physician-scientist with a track record of research accomplishments in neurological disease for the position of Executive Vice Chair. Hospital employment and academic appointment at the rank of associate professor or professor at Harvard Medical School will be dependent upon the individual's prior experience and scholarship. This candidate will serve in a senior leadership role within the Department of Neurology, the BWH Program in Neuroscience, and the Brigham and Women's Hospital. The candidate should have an independent research program in a neurological subspecialty discipline with a track record of obtaining peer-reviewed funding, mentoring and teaching trainees, and administrative experience. Start-up funding and resources are available. To be considered, candidates must hold the M.D. or M.D./Ph.D. degrees and be certified in neurology by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. Candidates should have strong teamwork, management, and interpersonal abilities.
