

Chair, Department of Family Medicine and Community Health
University of Miami Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine
University of Miami Health System

The University of Miami Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine, based in Miami, Florida, invites applications and nominations for the position of Chair, Department of Family Medicine and Community Health.

The Department of Family Medicine and Community Health at the University of Miami Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine is rich in history. First led by Dr. Lynn P. Carmichael, M.D., who is considered one of the founders of the discipline of family medicine, the Department went on to establish the first family residency program offered in the United States, currently with 24 residents and an outstanding fellowship program in sports medicine. The Department has fifteen faculty providing comprehensive treatment and prevention services at ten practice sites and urgent care centers throughout Miami-Dade County. In addition to their outpatient practice clinics, the Department provides services for the 1550 beds at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Clinical revenues for the Department are approximately $14 million. The Department is actively engaged in research projects funded by grants from HRSA and the Department of Defense, totaling $2.7M.

Reporting to the Dean of the School of Medicine, Henri R. Ford, M.D., MHA, the Chair will oversee clinical activities, with responsibility for their expansion and success in the marketplace and for achieving the delivery of high-quality and cost-effective care. The Chair will also oversee the residency programs, the sports medicine fellowship, an active undergraduate educational program, and the growth of the research/scholarly operations.

The ideal candidate will have a current academic rank of at least Associate Professor of Family Medicine along with a distinguished record of teaching, clinical care, educator, and investigator, with experience in leading programs and projects, and an appetite for life-long learning in an academic setting as well as demonstrated success as a leader of a Department or Division of Family Medicine. Candidates must be an M.D. or M.D./Ph.D., be board certified in Family Medicine, and eligible for licensure in Florida.

WittKieffer has been retained to assist in this recruitment. Inquiries, nominations, and applications are invited, and candidates should include a letter of interest outlining their special qualifications for this position and a current curriculum vitae. Confidential inquiries and documents should be submitted to the WittKieffer consultants supporting this search, Kimberly Smith, Tricia Porter, and Cody Burke at UMiamiFamilyMed@wittkieffer.com.

The University of Miami is an Equal Opportunity Employer - Females/Minorities/Protected Veterans/Individuals with Disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants and employees are protected from discrimination based on certain categories protected by Federal law. Click here for additional information.