Highland Hospital/University of Rochester Department of Family Medicine

The University of Rochester Department of Family Medicine (DFM) is seeking an academic Family Physician to join our faculty and serve as Medical Director of the Highland Family Medicine (HFM) practice, a vibrant, full spectrum Family Medicine training practice serving over 25,000 patients and families from diverse backgrounds in Rochester, NY/Monroe County. The Medical Director provides direction and oversight of all the clinical activities of HFM, a level 3 NCQA certified Patient Centered Medical Home, which is the main training site for both the HH/URMC Family Medicine Residency as well as the Highland Family Medicine Nurse Practitioner Residency.

The Medical Director serves on the DFM Executive Committee and provides leadership regarding the clinical practice of the department. This includes responsibility for the clinical care delivered by an interprofessional team of physicians, nurse practitioners, pharmacists and trainees in each of these disciplines, as well as collaborating with the Clinical Director of the embedded Behavioral Health practice on site. The ideal candidate will be an ABFM board certified Family Physician with prior academic experience. We are seeking a candidate with creativity and vision to advance the mission of the DFM, “to improve the health of our communities and reduce healthcare disparities through leadership and excellence in family medicine education, clinical practice, research, and community service.”

Candidate must have an MD or equivalent degree with board certification or eligibility in Family Medicine and eligibility for a NY state license. A post-offer health assessment and drug testing is required to be performed on-site.

The University of Rochester Department of Family Medicine (URMC) is a private, coeducational, nonsectarian, and nonprofit university. It forms the centerpiece of the University of Rochester’s health research, teaching and patient care missions. We have a diverse population of students, faculty, and staff, all committed to the University’s motto of “Meliora” – Ever Better.
