

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF DERMATOLOGY
Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center

The Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center (BIDMC) is seeking applications and nominations for an academic Dermatologist to serve as Chair of the Department of Dermatology. The Department of Dermatology at BIDMC is consistently ranked among the top Dermatology departments in the US, based on its clinical and educational programs and a growing research portfolio. BIDMC is a Harvard teaching hospital, and serves as the flagship academic medical center for Beth Israel Lahey Health system.

Applicants should have a record of significant academic accomplishment and demonstrate the leadership skills to nurture and enhance the research, teaching and clinical portfolios of an already superb Department of Dermatology. This individual will have far-reaching leadership responsibilities. Therefore, they must have proven administrative, mentoring and communication acumen, be able to lead a large and complex department, and also to engage with institutional, departmental, and divisional leaders, the Harvard community, as well as the regional, national and international dermatology communities.

An academic appointment as Associate Professor or as Professor of Dermatology at Harvard Medical School (HMS) will be commensurate with experience, training and achievements in addition to teaching activities.

Prospective applicants should submit a letter of interest and curriculum vitae addressed to:

Committee Chair:
Nezam H. Afdhal MD, DSc
Chief, Division of Gastroenterology,
Hepatology and Nutrition, BIDMC
Charlotte and Irving Rabb Professor of Medicine, HMS
Email to nafdhal@bidmc.harvard.edu

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.
