University of Virginia Health
Chief Diversity & Community Engagement Officer
Charlottesville, Virginia

The Chief Diversity & Community Engagement Officer will be the architect of an enterprise vision for diversity, equity, and inclusion by creating aspirational goals, a compelling message, metrics for transparency and plans for change. This key leader will work collaboratively with UVA's Vice President for Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Community Partnerships and serve as the lead liaison between the health system and the greater Charlottesville/Albemarle County community with a focus on fostering relationships and building true partnerships that bridge gaps among cultural and socio-economic barriers. This executive will partner with others throughout the system to identify and launch programs and initiatives to address social determinants of health and increase equity in access to quality healthcare.

UVA Health is an academic health system whose mission is to provide excellence, innovation, and exceptional quality in the care of patients, the training of health professionals, and the creation and sharing of health knowledge within a culture that promotes equity, diversity, and inclusiveness.

Reporting to the Executive Vice President of Health Affairs, the Chief Diversity & Community Engagement Officer serves as a critical member of the UVA Health leadership team and operates with the authority and visibility necessary to effect substantive, systemic change to advance the health system's goal of achieving greater diversity and improved community engagement.

We look forward to working with you as a potential candidate for the Chief Diversity & Community Engagement Officer position for UVA Health in Charlottesville, Virginia.
