

Psychiatry Residency Program Director
Western Michigan University Homer Stryker M.D. School of Medicine

The WMed Psychiatry Department is seeking a board-certified psychiatrist with a passion for teaching to lead the department's growing residency program. Candidates with five or more years as core faculty in ACGME-accredited psychiatry residency programs are encouraged to apply. Evidence of scholarly activity and previous administrative or leadership experience are highly preferred.

Opportunity Highlights

- Building on a 20-year legacy, this established yet rapidly growing program is primed to expand and enhance its psychiatric services, research, and resident training. Several clinical collaborations with the community health center, VA system, and various practice groups are in place to enhance the program and its success.
- Join a collegial team fully supportive of growth and change
- Enjoy protected academic time—50% administrative, 40% clinical, and 10% teaching or scholarly pursuits
- Flexibility to spend your clinical time within your area of interest or expertise
- Autonomy to craft and fine-tune the program
- Comprehensive benefits, including generous retirement options and ample PTO
- Competitive salary commensurate with experience and academic rank
