Director of Research, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Division
McLean Hospital

McLean Hospital, Partners HealthCare System, and the Department of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School, are inviting qualified applications for the position of Director of Research, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Division at McLean Hospital, with appointment to the rank of Professor or Associate Professor of Psychiatry. We are looking for an established physician-scientist to coordinate and lead the integration of research and educational activities with our clinical programs within the Division. The candidate should have a strong record of NIH funding for research programs. The candidate should also have a demonstrated ability to direct clinical services, develop an independent research program, mentor trainees and junior faculty, and have an interest in establishing collaborations with other clinicians and investigators within the facility and across Harvard Medical School and the Partners HealthCare System, including Massachusetts General Hospital and Brigham and Women's Hospital.

This position requires an M.D. degree, Board Certification in Psychiatry, and eligibility for full licensure in the Commonwealth of MA. The candidate should have a successful track record of demonstrated success as a researcher, including national recognition and a publication record indicative of expertise related to child and adolescent psychiatry, as well as a history of successful program leadership, and substantial clinical training experience. Dependent upon qualifications, applicants must either meet the academic criteria for appointment at the rank of Professor or Associate Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School.

Salary and recruitment package will be commensurate with qualifications and experience, and in accordance with institutional guidelines.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae and a concise statement of research interests to the search committee chair: Scott L. Rauch, M.D., President and Psychiatrist in Chief, c/o Mr. Terry Bragg, tbragg@partners.org, McLean Hospital, 115 Mill Street, Belmont, MA 02478.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.
