Accomplishments of the Tallahassee Senior Foundation

- Serves 25% of the senior population in Tallahassee-Leon County.
- Offers 180 different activity opportunities each month to adults of all ages.
- Accommodates more than 500 visitors each day and 5,200 participants each month.
- Provides programming in Bradfordville, Chaires, Ft. Braden, Lake Jackson, Miccosukee, and Woodville, funded by a grant from the Leon County Commission.
- Enhances senior services in Southside neighborhoods and the Southwood Community.
- Facilitates the Tallahassee-Leon County Age Friendly Community Project to encourage all aspects of a senior friendly community.

Funded by members, grants and partnerships with local businesses, the TSC Foundation is able to provide high quality programming and services for the Tallahassee Senior Center. Your contribution is vital and makes a difference.

Yours truly,

Foundation Board President

The mission of Tallahassee Senior Services is to offer programs, activities, and opportunities designed to encourage active living, optimal aging, and social fitness for independent adults age 50+.
