PARKS & RECREATION

Spring 2019 Calendar of Events

Dauphin County Parks and Recreation Department is looking forward to welcoming spring with many activities that allow residents to get outside and enjoy the beautiful weather. Beat cabin fever on Sunday, March 3rd, with the Maple Sugar Festival. Walk the beautiful trails at Wildwood Park this spring while enjoying Art In The Wild. Sit and read on the swings at the beautiful Fort Hunter Mansion and enjoy a gorgeous view of the Susquehanna River. The Wetlands Festival promises to be another county favorite! Join us at the beginning of May as you get ready for the gardening season with Garden Faire at Fort Hunter Park.

We hope that you make our parks a regular stop this Spring as we have some of the best nature trails and programming in the region!

Photography Course 101: Getting the Most out of Your DSLR Camera

Saturday, March 2

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Wildwood Park

$150 per person

In this one-day hands-on workshop, Charlie Smith of Canon Professional Services will get you up and running fast with the skills you need to get the most from your camera. He'll take you out of "automatic," but won't overload you with too much detail. This 6-hour investment in your digital SLR will pay dividends over and over as you grow with your camera system. This course is guaranteed to improve your pictures! No previous experience required but should be familiar with your camera. Details and registration at www.wildwoodlake.org/events.

Wildwood Park Winter Lecture Series: Cindy Ross: The World is our Classroom

Tuesday, March 5 7:00 pm – 8:00 pm
Wildwood Park Free

Cindy Ross's story begins in the Rocky Mountain wilderness on a unique and extraordinary journey; two parents leading their young children 9,100 miles on the backs of llamas. The Canada-Mexico trek illustrated to Cindy and her husband what experiential education can do. Inspired by the experience, they went on to create a new way of supplementing their children's education. Cindy will present a multi-media show, a lively question and answer session, followed by a book signing.

Community Gardens Program Registration

Thursday, March 7 9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Fort Hunter Tavern House $15/plot
$5/children's plot

Garden plots, 30' x 30', tilled and ready for planting, are available for rent at the community gardens off Elmerton Avenue. Each gardener will receive assorted vegetable seeds. A limited number of special 10' x 10' plots have been set aside for children ages 12 & under. Pre-registration is required in person at the Fort Hunter Tavern. Please come in the morning, as plots sell out by the end of the day.
