Fall 2019 Calendar of Events

Unless Otherwise Noted:

*Wildwood program registration is online at www.wildwoodlake.org/events

*Wildwood programs begin at the Olewine Nature Center unless otherwise posted.

As cooler weather and the colorful leaves of autumn settle into Central Pennsylvania, the season comes alive at Dauphin County Parks & Recreation. The Dauphin County Commissioners and staff have an exciting fall line-up of great outdoor programs, live music and more for your entertainment pleasure.

Don't miss the Dauphin County Jazz & Wine Festival at Fort Hunter in September with headliners NY Guitar Summit, Najee and Pieces of a Dream. Fort Hunter Day in September kicks off autumn. Wildwood Park will host Celebrate Wildwood on September 29th. Wrap up the fall season with Wildwood's Night at the Nature Center and Howl-o'ween - Fort Hunter's pet event in October. And don't miss the sneak peak of our Holiday events!

Check out what's happening at www.DauphinCounty.org and follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for updates on events!

Dress for indoor and outdoor activities and wear sneakers or other closed-toed shoes. Register at www.wildwoodlake.org/events.

Forest Bathing

Tuesday, September 24 - Seniors 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
Sunday, September 29 - Adults 9:00 am – 12:00 pm
Detweiler Park $25 per person

Forest bathing is viewed as a restorative wellness practice. Japanese studies on the wellness benefits of shinrin-yoku (forest bathing) have provided actual data that documents wellness benefits. We will be walking slowly and stopping for periods of time in order to explore, interact, and connect with the environment through our senses. There will be several stops along the trail for exploring nature and we will not be walking the entire time.

Participants should bring personal drinking water, a light snack, UV-safe sunglasses and a hat. Participants should dress in layers. Outdoor activities are safer and more enjoyable when you are comfortable. Don't forget your socks and sturdy footwear. Meet at the Detweiler Park bulletin board. Register online at www.detweilerpark.org.

Celebrate Wildwood

Celebrate Wildwood
Sunday, September 29 11:00 am – 4:00 pm
Wildwood Park Free

It's the 20-year anniversary of the Olewine Nature Center! Help us celebrate the park's past. Did you know Wildwood had a zoo at one time? Learn about the history of the park, birds, reptiles and more in the Wildwood Scavenger Hunt where you will visit a variety of education stations. Paint a pumpkin and enjoy other activities for the whole family. Live music and tasty food all day. Come out and watch presentations by the Monkey Man (and his live monkey) starting at 11am, followed by live animal programs by Lake Tobias! Check our website for specific showtimes.

Walk for Wildwood

Sunday, September 29 1:00 pm
Wildwood Park Donations

Your dollars preserve the park! Enjoy an autumn walk while helping support Wildwood. Choose the invigorating three-mile loop trail, or the shorter, accessible option on the half-mile boardwalk. This walk is an annual fundraiser for Friends of Wildwood who work to preserve and support the park. Go to www.wildwoodlake.org/support for more information or to donate. In addition to the Walk, enjoy Celebrate Wildwood, which runs from 11 am to 4 pm and has something for all ages.
