

Opening for Executive Director Brethren Housing Association

Brethren Housing Association, Harrisburg PA, is currently seeking an Executive Director. This position focuses on providing strategic direction and vision consistent with BHA's mission. Main responsibilities include:

- assuring the delivery of high-quality services to BHA's clients,
- managing a full-time and part-time multi-disciplinary staff,
- assuring maintenance and good stewardship of housing assets,
- maintaining fiscally sound operations,
- developing meaningful relationships with existing and potential BHA donors, and networking with related human service agencies and the local community.

Qualifications include:

- a strong Christian faith,
- education and/or experience in social work or a human services discipline (master's degree preferred),
- five or more years of experience in a management role, preferably in a faith-based human services agency with an urban client base.

The Executive Director represents the organization to the general public and donors, and is a full-time, salaried role reporting to the BHA Board of Directors. Position offers competitive salary and benefits including generous paid leave policy.

BHA is a growing, inner city, non-profit organization which provides holistic, trauma-informed care primarily to women and children who are experiencing homelessness. In addition, BHA has programs to support individuals, and intact families. Through a program of secure housing, supportive casework, and educational services, BHA moves clients to lives of self-sufficiency.

Founded in 1989 by two Church of the Brethren congregations, it initially was run entirely by volunteers from these two congregations. Today, BHA owns more than 20 apartments in the area around its offices at 219 Hummel Street in the South Allison Hill section of Harrisburg, PA, has a diverse group of faith-based and non-faith-based donors, and employs professional program, development and operational staff.
