

Operation Cookie

From Cookie Sellers to Cookie CEOs

We are connecting Girl Scouts with local companies and organizations through an Operation Cookie Presentation, building confidence, communication skills, and real-world leadership. By participating, your company or organization helps girls practice their presentation skills while supporting the Girl Scout Cookie Season in meaningful ways.

Your Impact

By engaging with Operation Cookie, your business helps girls:

- Feel empowered as girl entrepreneurs
- Build confidence and public speaking skills
- Practice important business networking skills
- Support troop activities and community projects

Ways to Participate

Following the presentation, companies may choose to:

- Purchase Girl Scout Cookies for employees, clients, or events
- Share how to order Girl Scout cookies online
- Offer mentorship or leadership advice to participants

Ways you Benefit

Partner companies benefit by:

- Supporting young leaders in the local community
- Boosting employee engagement through a positive initiative
- Demonstrating corporate social responsibility
- Being recognized as a Girl Scout community partner
