

Recreational Therapy

Evidence-Based Practice Day Conference

Wed., April 25th

Temple University
Howard Gittis Student Center
Montgomery Ave. & 13th St.
Phila., PA 19122
8:30am-3:00pm

Registration

Go to <http://noncredit.temple.edu/rtebpd> to register for the conference. Registration must be completed by Friday, March 30th. Registration is on a first-come-first-serve basis as space is limited. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Heather Porter at hporter@temple.edu. *Please note that refunds will not be provided. Individuals can earn up to 3.5 clock hours (0.35 CEUs) for attending the conference.

Cost

FREE	Recreational Therapy Students & Recreational Therapy Faculty Members
FREE	Internship Supervisors (Individuals who served as a primary internship supervisor for a Temple University Student during Summer 2017, Fall 2017, or Spring 2018).
$25	Family Member of Conference Presenter
$50	Recreational Therapist
$50	Other

* CEUs are included in the cost, if needed

Conference at a Glance

	200ABC	217A	217B	217C	217D
8:30-9:15am	Registration/Coffee
9:15-9:45am	Welcome
10:00-11:00am		NCTRC Job Analysis Domains & Tasks - What Do They Mean for Internship Supervision? ~ Ann E. Dolloff, MEd, CTRS & Aurora Crew, MS, CTRS	Using & Building Evidence-Based Practice in RT ~ Heather R. Porter, PhD, CTRS	Two 30-minute presentations in one session! 1) Increasing Physical Activity for Individuals with SCI Using Leisure Education ~ Victoria DeFazio, CTRS, +1 Student & Kristen McCrane, CTRS, +1 Student 2) Leisure Education to Facilitate Social Inclusion of Adults with Dementia ~ Franca Baron, MSRT Student & Jacklyn Straface, MSRT Student	The Engagement in Preferred Activities Scale (EPASS): Reliability & Validity Testing ~ Victoria Crumie, MS, CTRS & Audrey Morrell, CTRS
11:10-12:10pm		New CMS Quality of Life Regulations & the RT's Role ~ Aurora Crew, MS, CTRS	Evidence-Based Neuroplasticity Interventions in Rehabilitation ~ Heather R. Porter, PhD, CTRS	Two 30-minute presentations in one session! 1) Leisure Education: Facilitating Leisure for Adolescents with Duchenne's Muscular Dystrophy ~ Kiersten Ferguson, MSRT Student & Michelle Geron, MSRT Student 2) Leisure Education for Young Adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder ~ Kyra Baker, MSRT Student & Layla Olia, MSRT Student	Applying a Transdiagnostic Perspective to RT Practice in Behavioral Health ~ Bryan McCormick, PhD, CTRS & Gretchen Snethen, PhD, CTRS
12:10-1:10pm	Lunch on own
	200ABC	217A	217B	217C	217D
1:15-2:45pm	Poster Session: Contemporary Issues in Recreational Therapy AND Evidence-Based Implementation of Aromatherapy to Achieve Recreational Therapy Outcomes
2:45-3:00pm	Turn in your CEU forms at the registration table before you leave.
	* Conference social to be determined

Special thanks to the faculty who presented &/or mentored student presentations:

- Aurora Crew, MS, CTRS
- Ann Dolloff, MEd, CTRS
- Bryan McCormick, PhD, CTRS
- Heather R. Porter, PhD, CTRS
- Jo-Ellen Ross, PhD, CTRS
- Gretchen Snethen, PhD, CTRS
- Gena Bell Vargas, PhD, CTRS, CA