Richard Bland College of William & Mary Partners With Chesterfield Chamber for Leadership Chesterfield

Richard Bland College of William & Mary and the Chesterfield Chamber are partnering to present Leadership Chesterfield, a strategic program designed to educate rising business leaders on how to grow and strengthen business networking and civic engagement.

“Richard Bland College is thrilled to have been selected by the Chesterfield Chamber to offer leadership training designed to help our leaders, businesses, and communities grow and thrive,” said President Debbie L. Sydow. “Education is at the heart of a healthy business community, and Leadership Chesterfield proves that the Chesterfield Chamber is once again ahead of the curve.”

“The Chesterfield Chamber is not only about building businesses in Chesterfield, but also building leaders,” said Danielle MW Fitz-Hugh, President & CEO. “Leadership Chesterfield is excited to partner with Richard Bland College to help the Chamber accomplish goals to move our communities forward.”

Leadership Chesterfield consists of nine workshops from September 2019 through May 2020. The sessions will be held from 8:00am to 1:00pm on the third Tuesday of each month at various locations throughout Chesterfield County chosen to enrich learning in a business environment. Guest speakers and educators will be facilitating the workshops.
