Chesterfield Chamber Announces New Hire, Casey Harman as Business Development Manager

Chesterfield, VA (September 2, 2020) – The Chesterfield Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce Casey Harman as the organization's new Director of Business Development. Casey will work closely with Chamber President Danielle Fitz-Hugh and staff to deliver value and drive membership into the largest business civic organization in Chesterfield. Casey will begin with the Chamber of Tuesday, September 8, 2020.

"As the largest statewide business organization, the Chesterfield Chamber is invested in keeping our member businesses informed, engaged, and positively represented. That's why we have hired Casey to help our members grow their businesses and the Chesterfield economy," said Fitz-Hugh. "She will be a vital part of bringing in new audiences and strengthening connections with our existing members."

Casey Harman will deliver value to businesses and members across the County. She previously worked for Stonehenge Golf & Country and Magnolia Green in membership sales. Casey has been an active Chamber member for several years winning Chamber Young Professional of the Year in 2018. She is originally from Louisa County, VA. Casey currently resides in Quinton, VA with her husband and daughter.

About the Chamber: To be the champion for the business community, fostering growth and development, transformational relationships, and a thriving environment in Chesterfield County.
