AMY SHUTTLE WINS SALES AWARD

Lifetime Sales Achievement Award recognizes chamber of commerce sales professionals

BRISTOL, Tn. (July 20, 2026) — The Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE) has awarded Amy Shuttle of the Bristol Chamber of Commerce the Dana Ketterling Lifetime Sales Achievement Award. The award recognizes career sales achievement, with awards based on the total number or total dollar amount of chamber membership sales.

Shuttle earned recognition in the gold category for achieving 1,000 transactions or $500,000 in chamber memberships throughout her career.

"Membership sales professionals play a vital role in the success of every chamber," said ACCE President & CEO Sheree Anne Kelly. "The relationships they build and the members they welcome into the chamber strengthen the organization and its impact throughout the community. We are proud of our industry's top achievers and celebrate their success."

ACCE annually presents this award in memory of Dana Ketterling, ACCE's resource development officer, who was a gifted membership professional and champion of chambers of commerce and the communities they serve. Recipients are honored during ACCE's Annual Convention, where chamber leaders from across the country gather each year.

Beth Rhinehart, President & CEO of the Bristol Chamber, said, "Amy's recognition is a testament to her unwavering commitment to serving our business community. For years, she has built meaningful relationships with our members, helping businesses connect, grow, and thrive through the Chamber. Her passion for our mission and genuine care for the success of others have made a lasting impact on our organization and the region we serve. We are incredibly proud to see her receive this well-deserved national recognition."

David Crockett, Chairman of the Bristol Chamber board, said, "On behalf of our Board of Directors, I congratulate Amy on this outstanding achievement. She has been an exceptional ambassador for the Bristol Chamber, demonstrating that membership is about far more than joining an organization—it's about investing in the success of our business community. The relationships Amy has built over the years have strengthened our Chamber and contributed to the economic vitality of our region. This national recognition is richly deserved."
