Church Directory Available

The new Spring 2017 Paradise Valley United Methodist Church Directory was created specifically for our members and constituents as we strive to create community. Families who were photographed, and those who submitted photos, receive a free directory. Martha Rinne, project director, distributed nearly half of the free printed books last week. To pick up your personal copy, stop by the church office during summer office hours, 9 am-5 pm, Monday-Thursday or 9 am-12 noon on Fridays. An electronic interactive pdf version was emailed to photographed families on Friday, June 9.

Check your email if you missed it! The book is for your personal use, and for church business only. The photos and data are property of the church and may not to be used by outside parties or used to solicit others outside of church business. If you have any questions, please email info@pvumc.org. Copies of the printed book cost $10/each for members and constituents listed in the roster. Read More\*

If you can share a few contacts or job leads, please let Brenda Smith in the church office know, or contact Kent Heltne, 480.659.7874 or kheltne@cox.net.

Support VIP Next Week

Once a year, the church has a special offering in support of Church & Society efforts via Valley Interfaith Project. This year, PVUMC has designated Sunday, June 25 Peace with Justice Sunday, normally the Sunday after Pentecost, with a special offering opportunity to support VIP, a broad-based, non-partisan group of dues-paying member congregations, schools, unions and nonprofits committed to building power for sustainable social and economic change. PVUMC is a member of VIP. If you would like more information about VIP or would like to be a part of the Church and Society Ministry Team, please contact Dan Sagranso.
