

Paradise Valley United Methodist Church Your Gifts Support Our Ministry

Frequently Asked Questions

Why should I give?

As Christians, we understand that everything we have comes from God. We give out of love and gratitude for God, and to support God's work through the church.

How much should I give? 10 percent?

The Bible teaches us giving in proportion to the material blessings we receive. We encourage committing a percentage of your income and increasing that percentage over time. Tithing means giving the first tenth or 10 percent of your income to God.

When should I give?

Regular, faithful giving cultivates a lifestyle of generosity and connects our generosity to our blessings. Pledge to give consistently — weekly, monthly, quarterly or annually.

Two Ways to Pledge

There are two ways to pledge your commitment to PVUMC: via our online form or via a pledge card. Both show your commitment to PVUMC, so choose just one.

Pledging 101: Two Ways

1) Online: Visit pvumc.org/pledge on February 27, 2017 or after and fill out the online form. When you finish, you will have the option to set up automatic electronic payments.

2) Pledge Card: If you prefer, complete a pledge card and bring it to worship on March 5, Commitment Sunday, or return it to the church office. Please contact us if you have questions. Call 602.840.8360 or email giving@pvumc.org. Your pledges help us determine our budget for 2017-2018. By pledging your support early, we can better budget for the future.

Start Your New Amount NOW

Instead of waiting until we begin our new fiscal year on July 1, 2017 to begin your new amount, why not begin NOW? Our new God's Love in Action™ option allows you to start Defying Gravity NOW. Thank you for pledging your support to PVUMC.

Defying Gravity

Break Free from the Culture of More

February 26, 2017

Welcome to Paradise Valley United Methodist Church. Today in worship, learn how to Defy Gravity and "break free from the culture of more." Read Cheryl Del Monte's message inside this Looking Ahead — "Practicing Generosity" — which she wrote based on Lydia's story and Paul's letters in the Bible and using the outside resource, All the Women of the Bible, by Edith Deen. Lydia is an example of someone who practices generosity every day. March 5 is Commitment Sunday, when we ask you to be like Lydia and help build up our church by pledging to PVUMC. 2017 International Mission Teams Need Stakeholders

PVUMC is sending two mission teams to Latin America again this March, and we invite you to become a 2017 Stakeholder to support their mission work in Costa Rica and Guatemala (March 4-13). A gift of $25 or more will help pay for the teams' in-country supplies, including construction materials, medical supplies, and children's bible education curriculum. Stakeholders receive news from team members during the trips, and are invited to post-trip meetings where team members will share stories and photos to show how lives were changed.

Use the GIVE NOW button on the church website to become a stakeholder no later than February 28, 2017.

Simply choose "Missions" and type "Costa Rica/Guatemala 2017 Stakeholder" in the "Comments" section. If you prefer to write a check, make it payable to PVUMC and write the info above in the memo line. Read More*

Defying Gravity

Break Free from
the Culture of More

Practicing Generosity by Cheryl Del Monte

Lydia was a businesswoman who sold purple cloth dyed using the secretions of a particular shellfish found in the Aegean Sea. She lived in Philippi — now called Filippi — in Greece, on the northern panhandle. Though a Gentile, Lydia chose to worship the one Jewish God, rather than multiple gods, like most Gentiles of the area. One Sunday Sabbath in 50 or 60 AD, Lydia sought out a place to pray by the seaside.

Paul and Silas saw the small group of women with Lydia, who were praying and seeking spiritual understanding. When Lydia heard Paul's message of Jesus that day, she knew she had at last found a faith she could embrace.

It wasn't long until Lydia and members of her household were baptized, and Lydia invited Paul and Silas to be guests in her home. Lydia became the first Christian woman in Europe, opening her doors to believers and helping the small church to grow. Paul wrote letters to the Philippians, encouraging them to think on things that were "honest, just, pure, lovely and of good report" (Phil. 4:8). And exhorting them with: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Phil. 4:13).

Lydia possessed a great generosity of spirit. She invested in the church of Jesus Christ by opening her home to others of the faith and by using her considerable wealth to build up a fledgling church. Paul and other disciples who followed knew to make their way to Lydia's home for safety and shelter. Because of Lydia's commitment to the faith, the words of Christ spread far and wide in Europe.

In the United States, we fought for our freedom to choose how we worship. We often take for granted the freedoms bought for us with bloodshed on battlefields around the world. So often, we practice generosity out of a feeling of obligation or tied to a selfish "what's in it for me?" attitude. But Lydia found a faith strong enough for her to find joy in risking everything to build up the church. When we get it right, like Lydia, we practice generosity with a faith that leads to lifelong stewardship.

Dueling Divas: Americana Friday, March 31, 2017 at 7pm, Sanctuary

PVUMC's own director of music and arts ministries, Ashley Snavley, and contemporary worship leader and accompanist, Andria Fennig, are back by popular demand. Last year, the Dueling Divas made their debut, and released their first CD: Two Grands, Four Hands: Live at PVUMC. Their new four-hand piano concert features works from American composers including Sondheim, Bernstein and Gershwin.

Free-will offering taken at the event benefits the PVUMC Community Concert Series. Childcare available with a 48-hr reservation; call 602-840-8360, ext 134. Register at <https://pvumc-concerts-3-31-17.eventbrite.com>

Perk Perk Purchases Support Youth Missions

The Paradise Perk is open Sundays, 9 am-1 pm. Every purchase you make there supports youth missions and ministry. The Perk is managed by volunteers, led by Shannon Curkendoll, Perk manager. Stop by and support youth missions, and if you'd like to volunteer, talk with Shannon.

Death and Dying Explored

On Thursday, March 2, clergy from three faiths present the final session, "After Life (?)," of the Salaam-Chai-Paradise event on Jewish, Christian and Muslim views about Death and Dying: "The End of Life Here... and the Life Hereafter (?)." The first session was on "Caring for the Terminally Ill," held at Temple Chai in January and the second was at PVUMC in February. Come at 6:30 pm to register, have refreshments and chat. The program begins at 7 pm.

March 18 – Raku Workshop

Musette Young, local Raku expert and artist, will lead a pottery painting and Raku firing workshop on Saturday, March 18. To RSVP for "The Gift of Emptiness," 9 am-12 noon, email Kathleen Kupper at kathleen.kupper@gmail.com. You may pay the $25 fee separately. The class is limited to 12 adult participants. Students 6th grade and up may attend with an adult.

Lent 2017: Gifts of the Dark Wood Books and Classes

PVUMC invites you to experience the Gifts of the Dark Wood, the church-wide Lenten study for 2017. Each chapter in Eric Elmes' book focuses on different types of unexpected gifts we find when we're in a dark place — lost, uncertain, tempted, alone — or when we feel we somehow don't belong. The nine-chapter book costs $12, and is available on the patio on Sunday mornings after worship.* You can pay for the book using GIVE NOW at pvumc.org (choose "other" and type "Lenten study book—2017" in the comments section). To get the most out of the book, we invite you to join one of our Pathways classes listed below, and study it with others in our faith community. See the website for class updates:
