TEST PREP WORKSHOP

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5

Let experienced instructors help you help yourself to a higher score on the PSAT/NMSQT.

This FALL test prep workshop will prepare juniors for the PSAT administration in October. Experienced teachers Sandie Thompson and Amy Johnson-Smith will familiarize you with content, format, and test-taking strategies for all sections of the PSAT/NMSQT.

Workshop Date and Time:

Please note that this workshop will run for approximately 4 hours on the day listed below. It will be held on The Colorado Springs School campus; specific locations will be posted on the door of the El Pomar Academic Center.

Workshop Dates and Times

Saturday, October 5 12 - 4 p.m.

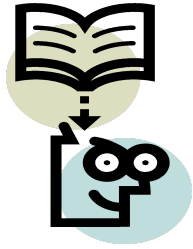

Registration and Fees:

This workshop is open to all upper or high school students, but it is most relevant for those students planning to take the PSAT in mid-October 2019. We must have a minimum of 5 registrants in order to run the workshop.

Please email registration information to ajohnsonsmith@css.org.

FEES: $150.00 for CSS students/$175.00 for non-CSS students

Financial assistance is available for students who demonstrate need. Please write checks to The Colorado Springs School and payment must be made by the beginning of the workshop.
