About This Issue

Last month we introduced a new contributor to our IWFFA Flag Football Newsletter: Nassima Jaghar who writes "A Woman's Prerogative", which covers feminine issues around the world, is riveting and a must read.

This month we introduce a new IWFFA Philosopher: Kim Hamlin, who is another solicitous writer, who shares a variety of thought-provoking topics. In addition, we've added an interesting section: "Did You Know" by: Yoshi Bujek who shares about the origin of quotes you hear often in the English language, where they came from, their original meaning, thought provoking quotes.

I encourage you to read our other articles written to benefit teams, players, coaches and officials. Long time writer: Alison Wood: "Let's Talk Flag Football" who shares about flag football situations on and off the field and how to handle them. Georgeann Lewis, USA head official, covers: Officials Corner, where she writes directly to flag football officials helping them to understand better the rules, and how to handle certain situations.

You should also know, Karen Cruz, head official for Central America, offers a monthly zoom for our Officials, a quick 30 minute to discuss current issues, rules interpretation and to answer questions. Ms. Raina creates our monthly podcast which airs third Thursday each month: "On the Air with the IWFFA". In the podcast you will hear interviews of our flag football players, coaches and hear interesting conversations that effect our female flag football players. Each issue we highlight an IWFFA flag football action photo, team selfie (feel free to submit your own). We recently brought back our flag football puzzles (first person to submit correct answers wins prize). From time to time, we will announce fundraisers, which we ask for your support. Currently we are running a food and medical supplies drive to collect and distribute to our Cuban flag football women & girls. We are still working to get our Afghan flag football players out of Afghanistan.

If you are not a current member, please consider becoming one. The cost is $25 for the year, and know that all the good work we do, is because of the financial support of our members and donors.

The IWFFA is a 501C3 Non-Profit organization. Your donations are tax deductible. Next month we will invite women to become a "Team Owner", to support our international teams who are financially challenged.

Finally, we also include our upcoming flag football tournaments, promotional tours, tournament results, and send out this monthly flag football news to inspire, energize and invite females around the world to get more women involved with the IWFFA, to join us, whether you play flag football or not, because we are a woman's organization who uses flag football as a vehicle to unite, empower and build female leaders around the world.
