Exhibition Schedule

The Way We Wore: Celebrating Chinese Fashion Heritage

Become immersed in Chinese American cultural life with our exclusive collection celebrating Chinese fashion heritage with donations and loans from the Chinese community.

1946 Chinese War Brides Act – H.R. 4844

The Museum is excited to host a new temporary exhibition, 1946 Chinese War Brides Act – H.R. 4844, a collaboration with the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (美洲同源會) – Chicago Chapter. We thank the Chinese American Citizens Alliance – National Lodge for its generous loan.

Come see the document and pen used by President Harry S. Truman to sign H.R. 4844 into law, a significant piece of legislation that helped create a newly structured family system and stabilized the Chinese American communities.

Great Wall to Great Lakes: Chinese Immigration to the Midwest

Learn when, how and why the Chinese who came to America made their way across the country to settle in the Midwest. See artifacts from the Chicago World Fairs that introduced Midwesterners to a new and fascinating Chinese culture. Finally, read the stories of “paper sons” who took on the identities of others to make a new life for themselves and experience the business they built from scratch.

My Chinatown: Stories from Within

Thanks to a generous grant from Chicago Community Trust, the Chinese American Museum of Chicago collaborated with the Chicago History Museum to bring its exciting multimedia installation of My Chinatown to CAMOC in 2012. CAMOC has added some additional elements to the mix: artifacts from Chinatown’s Family Associations and a special photographic essay of “Daily Life” in Chinatown.
