NOTES.

This morning Baptism, Reception of Members, by Letter and Probation. General Class at close of morning service—stay.

Our Lyceum, while directed by the Methodist Church is not sectarian in aim, methods or benefits. It had an unselfish origin in the wants of the community with a broad and generous purpose to help all people without regard to sect or creed—so is neither individually or collectively sectarian or seclusive. It is the People's Lyceum, for the people asked its continuance, and to all of its meetings they are freely invited.

Will the members of the Strangers Committee report the names and residences of strangers in the congregation, or the city, to the chairman, M. E. Booth, by postal card or in person.

Persons who do not take a church paper but desire to take one for '89, by subscribing now, will get a paper free for three months.

Will all persons who have not paid their pledges in full to October 1st, please pay the treasurer, Geo. Spangler, as early as possible.
