

The Woodlands

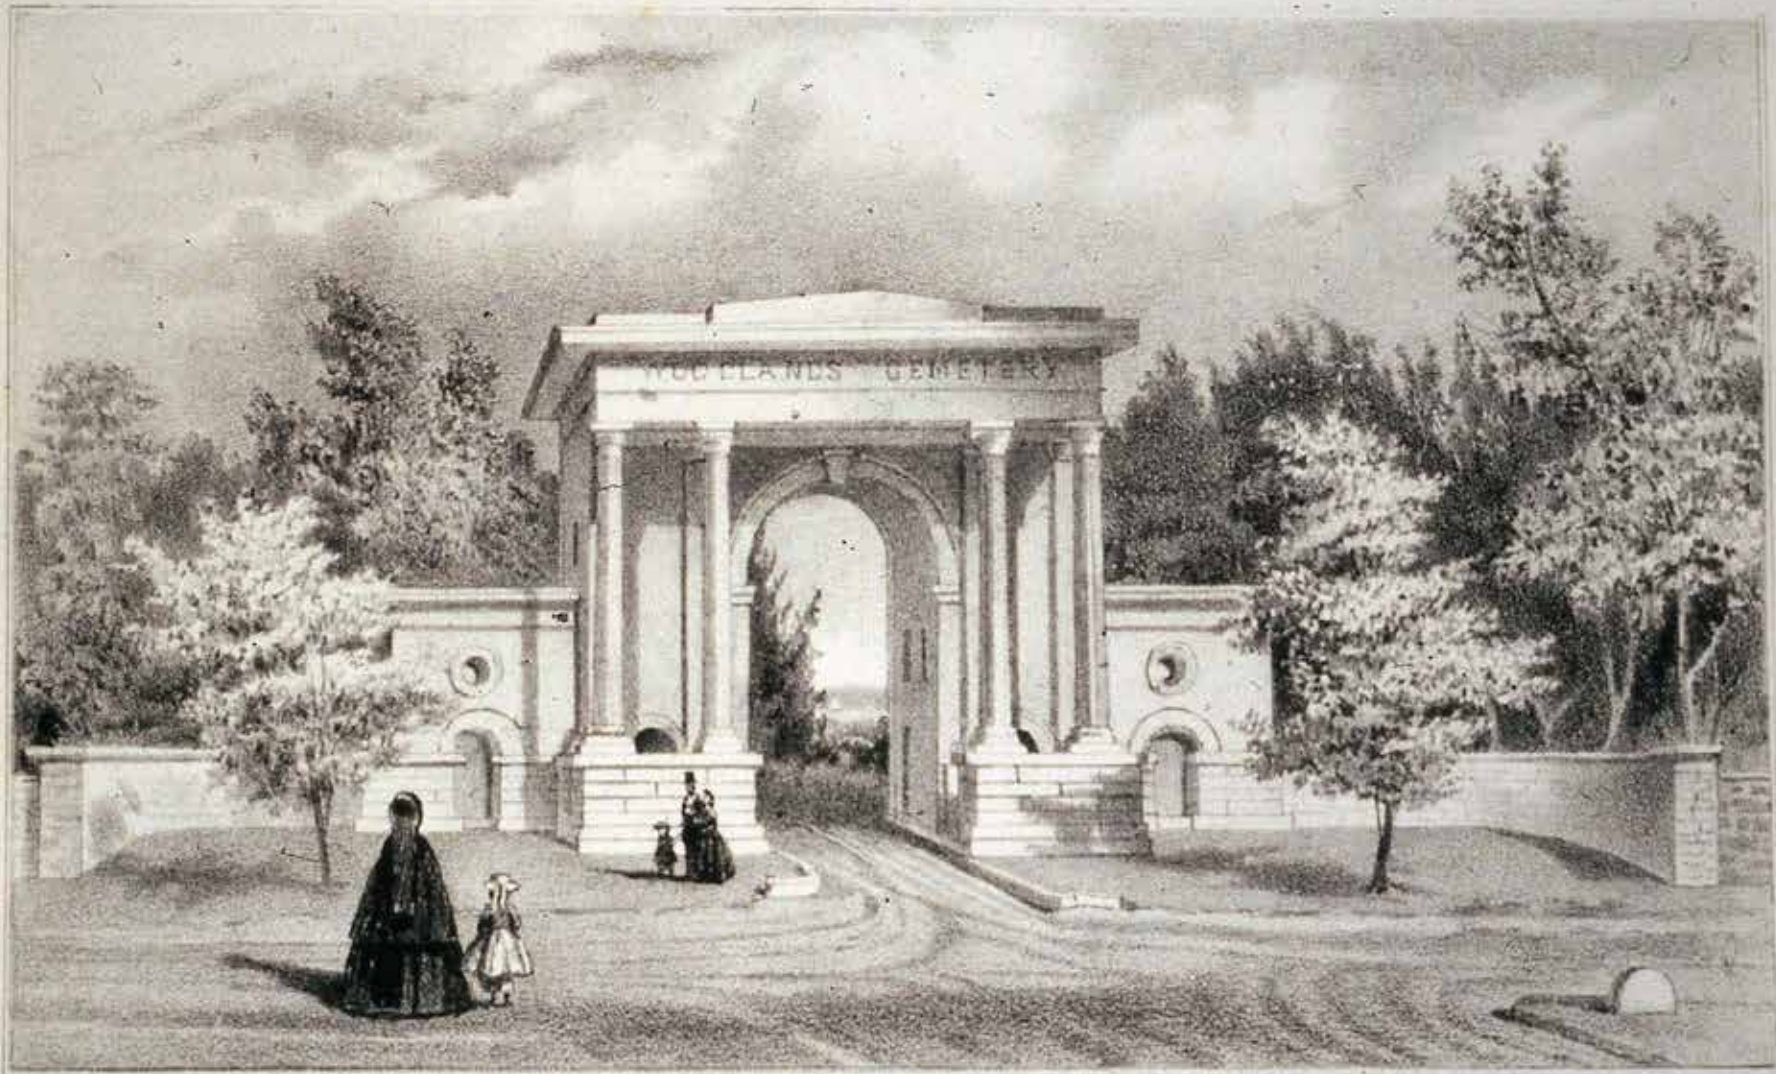

Hamilton Family Holdings in West Philadelphia At Their Greatest Extent With Dates of Acquisition

There is no one on which you would be received with more pleasure than at Monticello. Should I be there you will have an opportunity of indulging on a new field some of the taste which has made the Woodlands the only rival which I have known in America to what may be seen in England.

(Excerpt of a letter from Thomas Jefferson to William Hamilton, July 1806)

Engraved by E. D. Ince & Son, Philad.

WOODLANDS CEMETERY.

MAIN ENTRANCE

WHAT ARE GRAVE GARDENS?

Among the many elements around, few surpass those “tombs in the French style,” i.e. with head and foot stones, and beautifully carved side slabs, presenting the appearance of a couch. They are further enhanced by the profusion of roses and other choice flowers which cover the mound.

-Excerpt from a 19th century guidebook on Philadelphia, describing The Woodlands Grave Gardens.

Each gardener is assigned a grave

Section: F Lot Number: F 348-349

Name: Edmund A. Souder/ Emily B. Markle

Year of Death: 1873/1867
Age: 68/58
Size: Single (approx 8" deep, 4'9" x 1'6")

Gardening Conditions: ● Full Sun

Notes:
 small space for a bog plant on top

Lot Card: F 348-349

Section	Name	Year of Birth	Year of Death	Age	Notes
F	Souder, Edmund A.	1804	1873	68
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58
	Markle, Emily B.	1807	1867	58

Winter Workshops help gardeners plan their gardens for the year.

Workshop 1: FEBRUARY 1, 2017 6:00-8:00PM

Gardening for Beginners with Sally McCabe of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society (PHS)

Location: This workshop will be held at the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society's McLean Library

Workshop 2: FEBRUARY 18, 2017 1:00-4:00PM

Forget me Not: Planting a Cemetery Garden with Nicole Juday

Location: This workshop will be held at the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society's McLean Library

Workshop 3: MARCH 1, 2017, 6:00-8:00PM

Gardens (and Houses) in Graveyards: The Regional Peculiarities of America's Rural Cemetery Movement with Aaron Wunsch

followed by Research tutorial with Lee Arnold

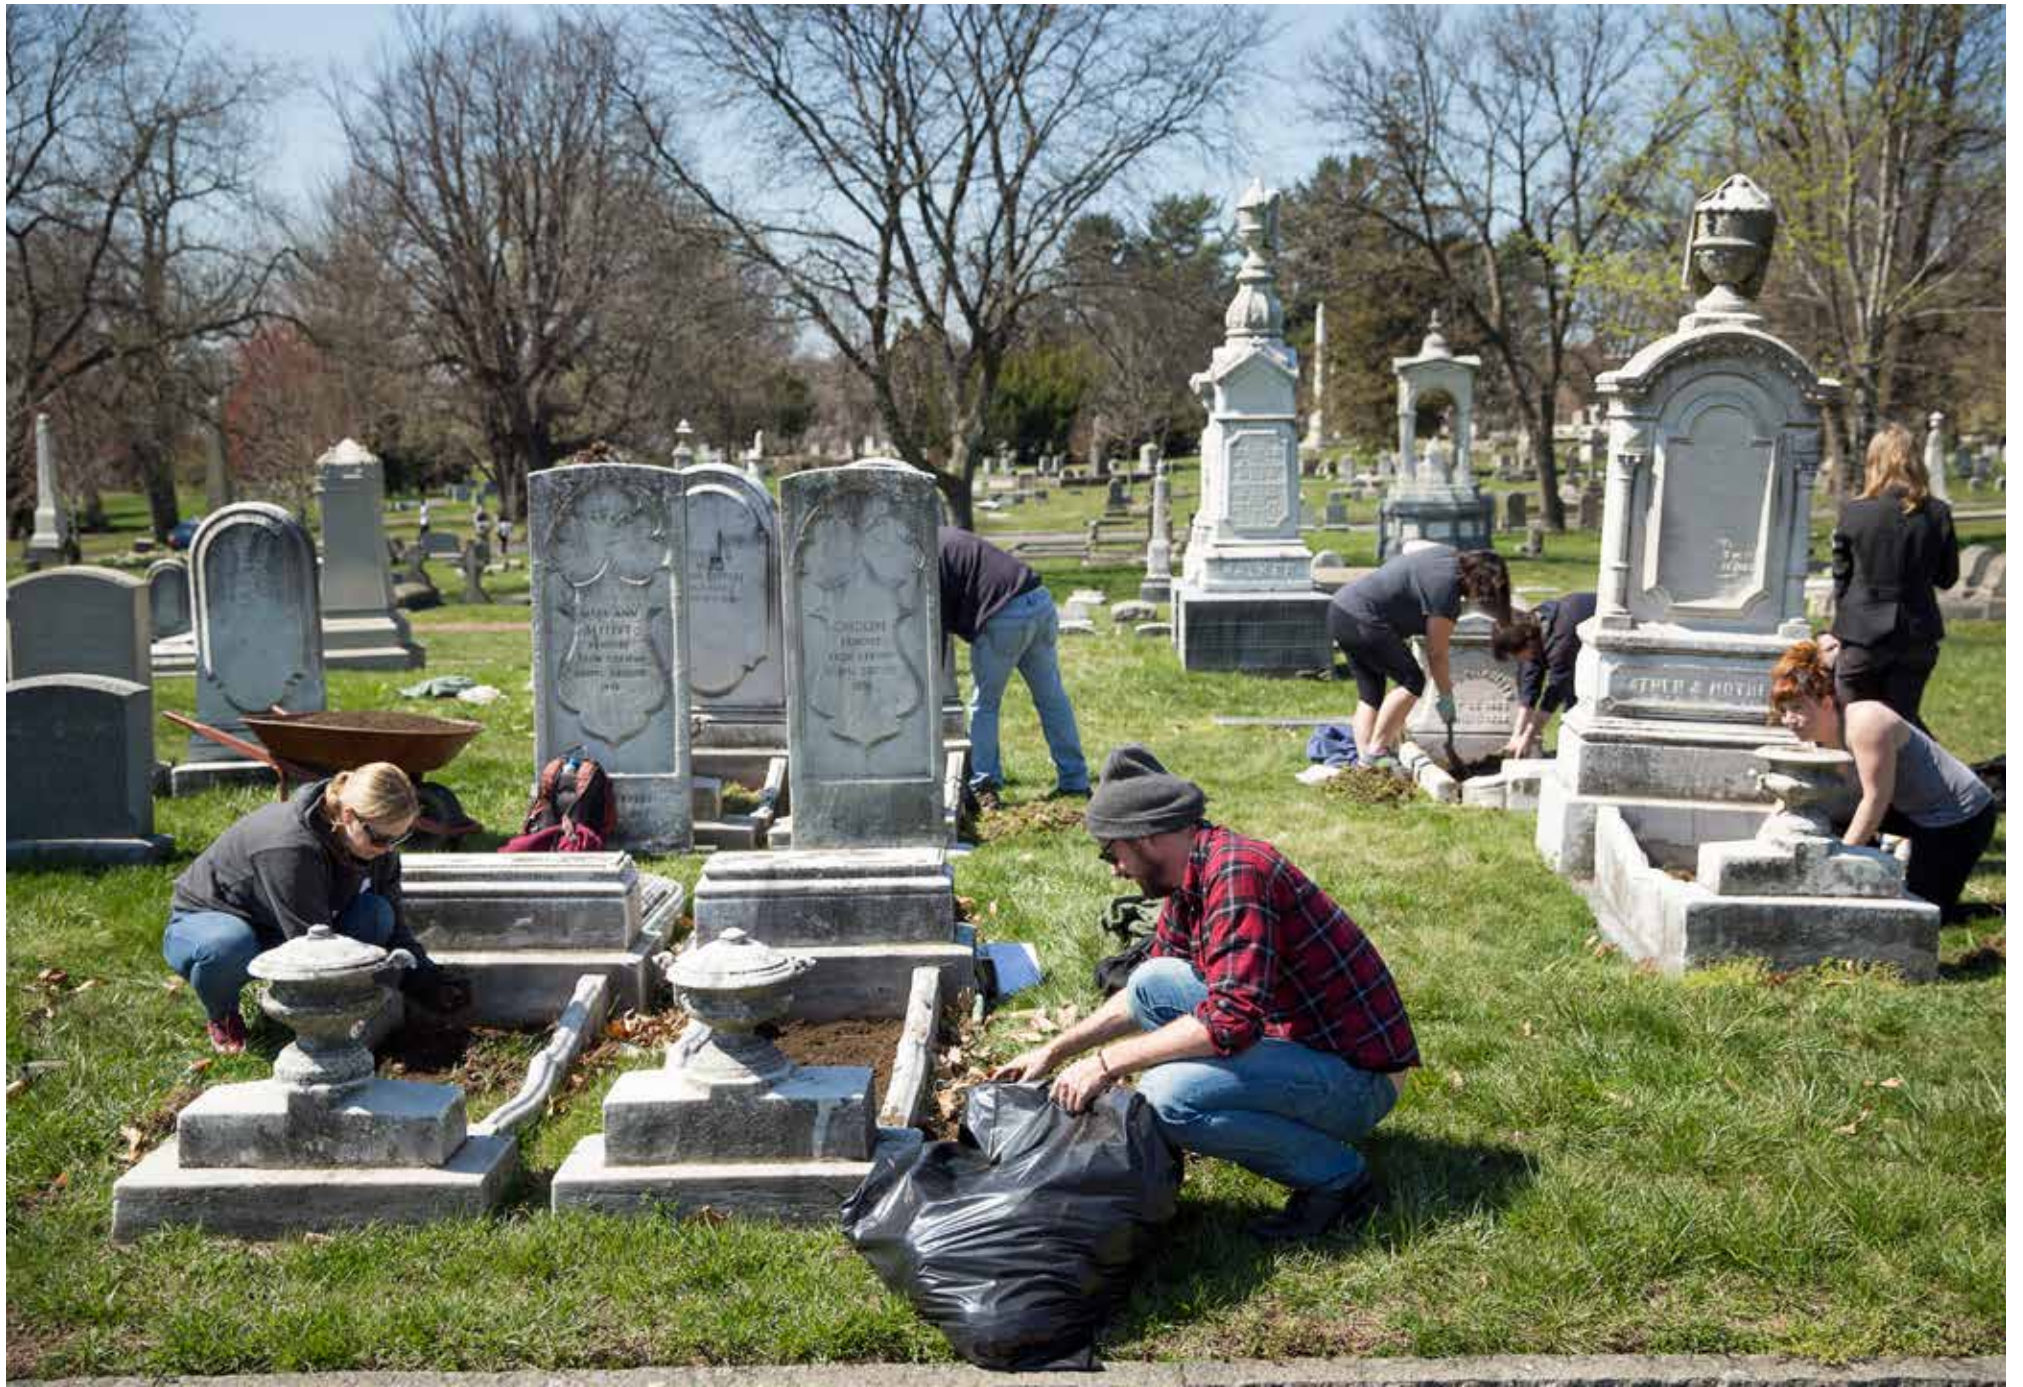

Location: This workshop will be held at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania

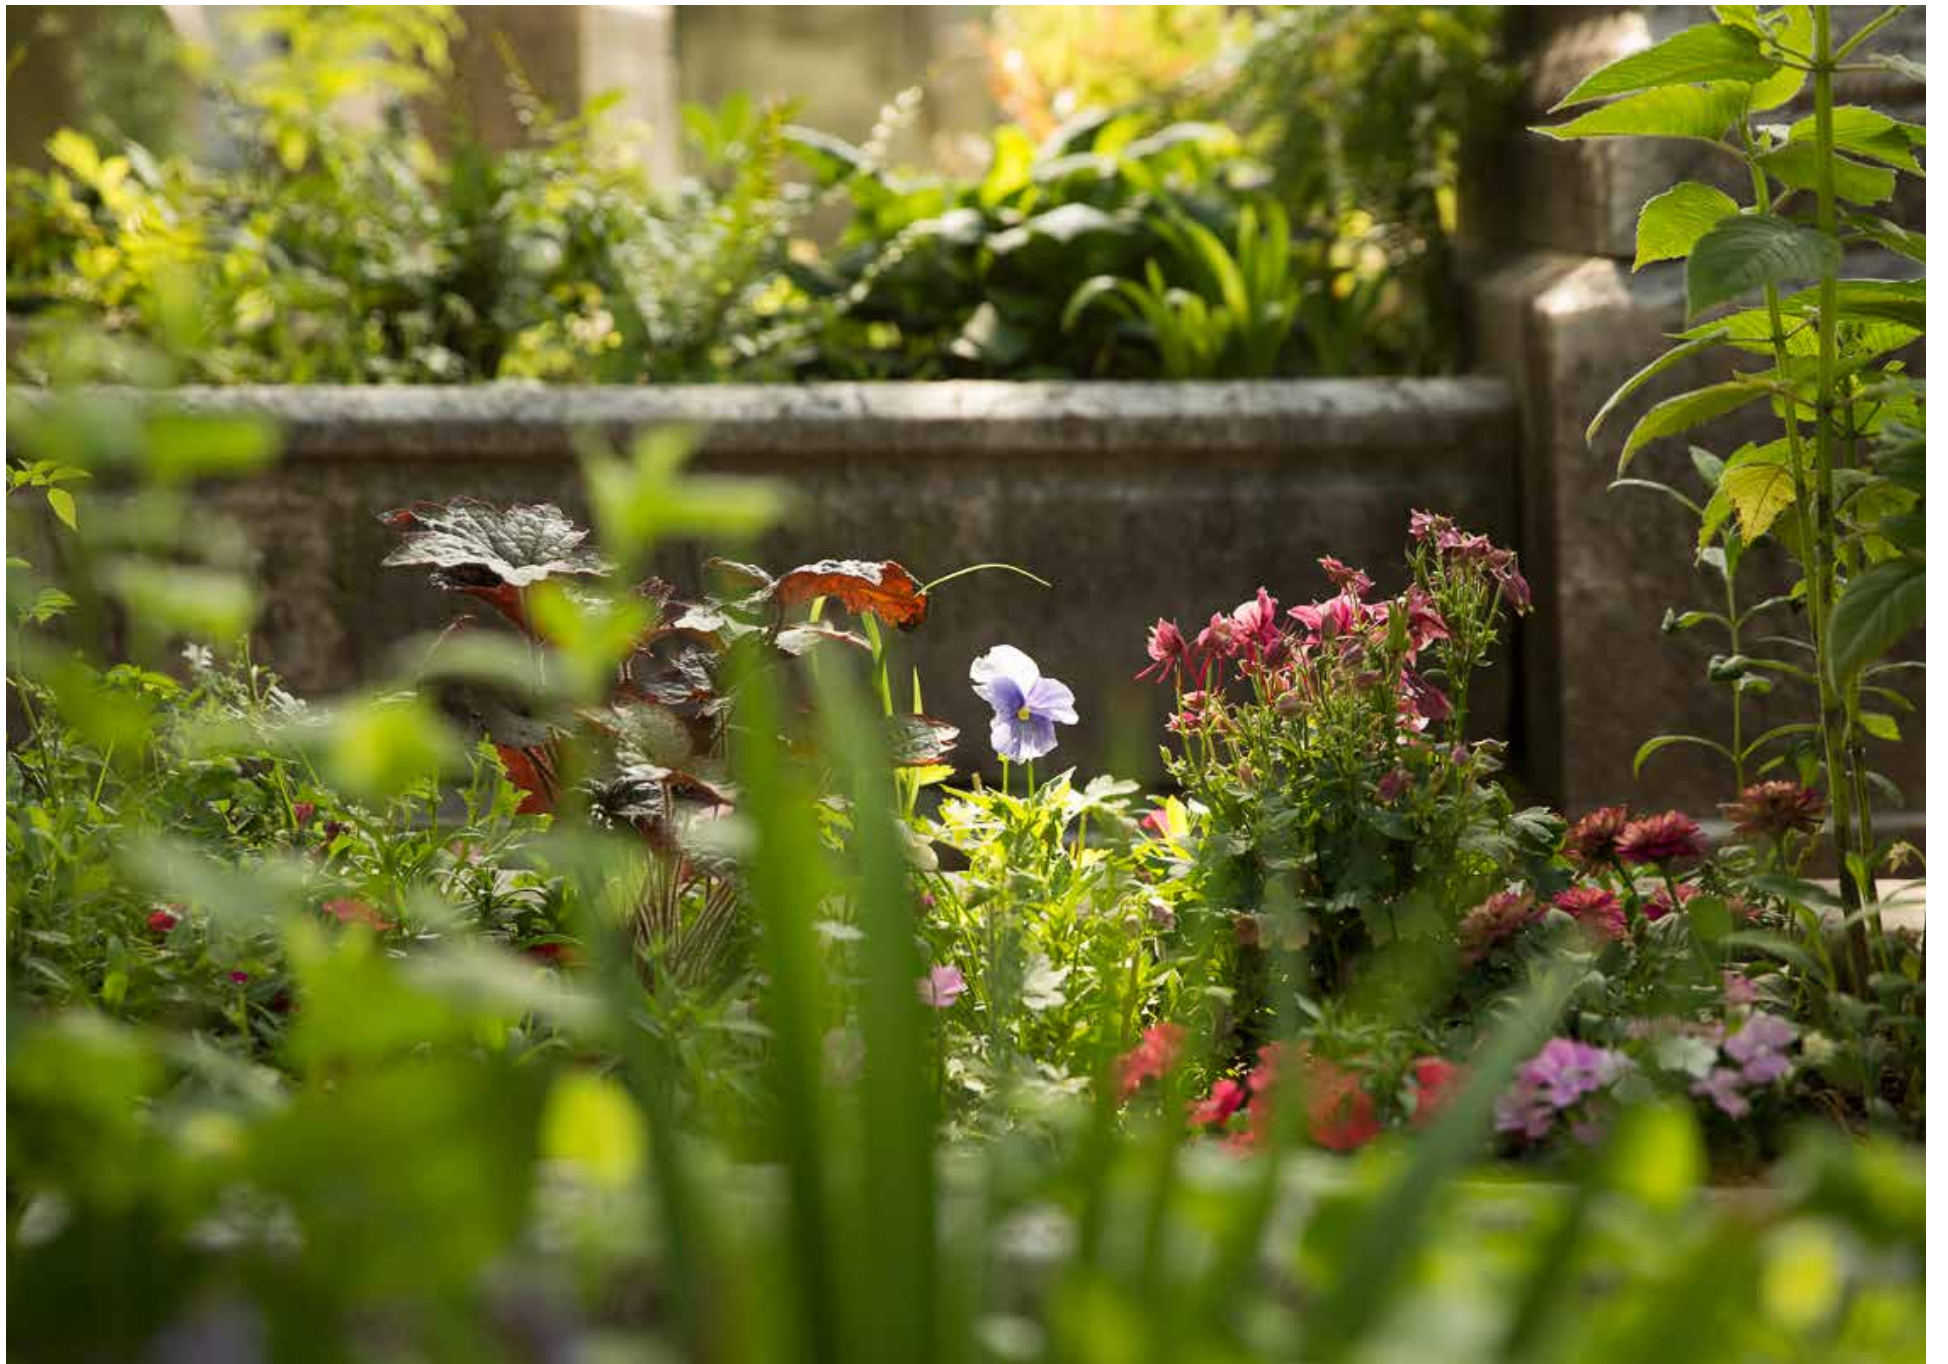

Workshop 4: March 25, 2017 1:00-4:00PM RAIN DATE: April 1, 2017

Seeds and Soil: Prepping Your Graves with Sally McCabe of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society.

Location: This workshop will be held at The Woodlands.

For more info visit:

www.woodlandsphila.org/grave-gardeners-application

The individual application period is over, but we are planning on setting a whole lot aside for the Eco-reps who are interested in participating. This group will be led by Ellen Iwamoto.

To be part of the Eco-reps Grave Gardening group, please fill out this info-sheet so we can add you to our Grave Gardener list!

THANK YOU!